Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

A disservice has been perpetrated against Yancey County by Representative Liston Ramsey who has divided the county up into two school districts. He did the same thing to Madison County in 1967. He is attempting through legislation to thwart the will of the people of Yancey County by depriving the people of a representative school board. He has gerrymandered the county for political purposes. Ramsey devised this stratagem so that those elected from the Burnsville, Cane River, Egypt, Ramseytown, Green Mountain, Brush Creek, Jacks Creek and Crabtree precincts will be of his political party and will control the next Board of Education. He's pretty sure that the member elected from the newly carved out South Toe, Pensacola, and Prices Creek precincts will be of the opposite party. Ramsey gives the voters of the latter precincts no chance to vote on the majority of the members of the Yancey County Board of Education.

This is the action of a politician more interested in maintaining political control than in improving the educational system and helping to give quality education to the thousands of children in Yancey County! Must the students receive least consideration in the scheme of things?

Small counties like Madison and Yancey should elect their Boards of Education from the counties at large so all the people will have a voice. Otherwise democracy is negated and hundreds of people are denied the right of franchise guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution. Under Ramsey's political scheme, each citizen's vote does not have the same weight--a denial of due process of law!

Madison and Yancey should be put under the statewide school board election law. The best way to do that is to defeat Ramsey in either the primary or general election in 1972. He represents the Ponder political ring in Marshall. The future is dark indeed if he's the only fellow we can find to represent this district. Defeat him, I say!

Sincerely,
Joe L. Morgan,

Would not this be sad-- indeed, shocking! Yet, this could be true in our community.

Some thirty years ago, it was not possible to call a Red Cross Blood Bank and get blood since there was no blood bank.

For a patient, it is most vital to be able to administer blood immediately. Late is not good enough. Tomorrow is too late.

To give blood is really to give part of one's self--a human transplant. It is a most unselfish act.

There is nothing--nothing--that can take the place of blood. No known medicine or machine.

It is a cause for gratitude that we have the Red Cross Blood Bank in our community. Let's make sure blood will be available when it is needed, let's meet our shared community responsibility--when the Bloodmobile is at the First Baptist Church in Spruce Pine between 12 noon and 6 p. m. on August 9 and at the Armory in Burnsville between 1 and 6 p. m. on August 11 (Wed.).

The goal is 100 pints both visits.

Give one pint of blood so that blood will be available for all of us.

We will all be grateful!

Sincerely,
(Mrs.) Lula Belle Wiseman
Chairman, Mayland Chapter American Red Cross.
