Land Of Oz Fall Schedule

"The Land Of Oz" heads into the autumn season on a new schedule after completing a very successful summer.

Oz, a themed adventure park developed by Carolina Caribbean Corporation atop Beech Mountain in Banner Elk, is a musical production with live costumed characters who take visitors through the entire story of the Wizard of Oz.

In its second season after becoming North Carolina's leading tourist attraction last year, Oz will be open on weekends only from now through October 31.

The fall schedule will give visitors a double barreled advantage. Not only will they be able to see Oz, they can also enjoy the beauty of the mountains during the autumn color change.

Last year 301,000 people visited Oz, setting a record for North Carolina attractions. Paid attendance this year to date is 33 per cent over that of last year.
