A Peek At Jack's Creek

By Kay Honeycutt
This week as I peeked around I began to see signs of Christmas. One home has up their Christmas tree. The churches have started practicing their Christmas programs. I also saw around 10 inches of snow. Grandmother and mothers have begun their Christmas knitting and baking for the holiday season.

This year as you do your shopping in the holiday rush, smile at a stranger, help some person pick up a package he has dropped, visit a shut in and read him the Christmas Story, give someone the directions to somewhere, or invite someone to church, but most of all let people see Christ, the real Christmas, in you!

Little Miss Cindy Woody visited Maw Janie and Papaw Hollis Honeycutt Sunday, December 5.

Mrs. Hallie Byrd visited with Mrs. Gwen Bailey on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 5.

A Household Shower was given for Mrs. James Robert Bell, the former Miss Evelyn Duncan, Saturday night in the home of Mrs. Hammy Briggs.

A Gospel Singing was held at Jacks Creek Baptist Church Saturday, Dec. 11 at 7:30 p. m.

Achievement Night Set

Yancey County 4-H Achievement Night will be held Thursday, December 16 at 7:30 p. m. in the lunch room at Cane River High School. Achievement Night is the highlight of the 4-H year.

Special awards, medals, and certificates will be presented to leaders, members and others on the basis of achievement in project work, 4-H events and service.

Many 4-H'ers plan to exhibit their project work. All 4-H'ers, their parents, friends and any other interested persons are invited to come.

Notice

There will be no CHILDREN'S HOURS at the Yancey County Public Library until Monday, January 3rd.

Holcombe Is Chairman

The North Carolina Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation has appointed Mr. Jerry Holcombe as Campaign Chairman of the Yancey County area.

As Chairman, Mr. Holcombe will lead the fund drive in this area. He will also be involved with efforts to increase the community's awareness of the critical need for research of Cystic Fibrosis and other lung damaging diseases in young children which the Foundation supports.

Tuesday night the Cane River Rebels play host to Bakersville Bulldogs and Friday night the Rebels will travel to Spruce Pine to play the Blue Devils. Everyone come out to the games and support our mighty Rebels!
