Well, today is both of them, and then some! I am one of these moody people! Today I am not in the mood to do anything but go back to bed, but I am glad Maggie

Robinson gave me a recipe to start off with today. It is a rice casserole that she has brought to church suppers and everyone wants the recipe for. It would go breat with chicken or any main

MAGGIE'S RICE CASSEROLE

1 stick butter or margarine

1 can mushrooms (gliced)

1 can water chestnuts (chopped)

Brown rice in margarine. Add onion soup, water, mushrooms and water chestmuts. Put in casserole and cover. Bake

1 hour at 350 or until tender.

Notes On Child Care

By Lois Williams Extension Agent

Every parent is concerned with proper guidance (or discipline) for their children. The guidance (or discipline) at first imposed by parents will eventually be imposed by the growing child on himself. This is the real goal or purpose of guidance- that the child will eventually come into greater self con-

For specific suggestions "Memos From A Child"which is taken from a California Parent-Teacher Magazine is hard to beat! MEMOS FROM A CHILD.

PART I 1. Don't spoil me. I know quite well that I ought not to have all I ask for-- I'm only testing you. 2. Don't be afraid to be firm with me. I prefer it. makes me feel more secure.

3. Don't be too upset when I say "I hate you". It isn't you I hate but your power to thwart me. 4. Don't take too much notice of my small ailments. Sometimes they get me the attention I need.

5. Don't nag. If you do I shall have to protect myself by appearing deaf. 6. Don't make rash promises. Remember that I feel badly let down when promises are broken. 7. Don't let me form bad habits. I have to rely on you to detect them in the early stages.

8. Don't correct me in front of people if you can help it. I'll take much more tice if you talk quietly with me in private. 9. Don't protect me from consequences. I need to learn the painful way sometimes.

10. Don't make me feel that my mistakes are sins. It upsets my sense of values. PART II

L Don't make me feel smaller than I am. It only makes me behave stupidly "big. "

2. Don't forget that I cannot explain myself as well add as I would like. This is why I'm not always very accurate, 3. Don't tax my honesty too much. I am easily Him frightened into telling lies. TM

4. Don't be inconsistent. That completely confuses saiv me and makes me lose faith

5. Don't put me off When in I ask questions. If you do, then you will find that I stop asking and seek infor mation elsewhere.

6. Don't tell me my fears mi are silly. They are terribly real and you can do more to reassure me if you try to understand.

7. Don't ever suggest that you are perfect or infallible. It gives me too great a shock when I discover that you are neither.

8. Don't ever think it is beneath your dignity to apologize to me. An honest apology makes me feel surprisingly warm toward you. 9. Don't forget I love experimenting. I couldn't get on without it, so please put up with it. di vd beause 10. Don't forget how quickly I am growing up. It must be very difficult for you to keep pace with me, but please do try. 11. Don't forget that I can't thrive without lots of understanding love. But I don't need to tell you, do I? (Source: California Parent-
