COOKING FOR PLEASURE

BY BILLIE STEWART

I wonder if anyone has days like I do, when you don't want to cook, wash dishes, or anything but look at old magazines, catalogs and picture albums. It may not be very rewarding but it sure is fun. I started out looking for a recipe, but got off the track someplace. I came up with a meatloaf that sounds different. Thought you might want to try it.

2 eggs, beaten
1/4 cup catsup
3 tbsps. brown sugar
2 tbsps. prepared mustard

Four milk over bread crumbs. Add ground beef, salt, pepper, carrot, onion, and eggs. Mix thoroughly. Pack in a 9 x 5 inch loafpan. Mix catsup, brown sugar and mustard; spread over meat loaf. Bake at 325 degrees for 1 1/2 hours. Yield: eight servings.

Reports

Once upon a time in the Autumn of '56 curtains were purchased for the stage at East Yancey. As the clock ticked on, and time passed away the curtains became ragged and worn. Then HARK! Through the school there rose a cry, "New curtains, new curtains, new curtains at E.Y."

Plays will be given, talent shows will be thrown, until enough money for the curtains has grown.

P.S... anyone with $2,000.00 please contact the drama department at East Yancey. Our number is 682-2281.
