You have only to turn through any of the popular women's magazines to see that cooking and a variety of recipes are of top interest to women. Recipes to tempt all of us are to be found in every edition. Our dishes, somehow, never seem to look as pretty as the pictures, but it is a challenge to us to try to make our meals attractive as well as to serve well-balanced nutritious meals.

This week we are sharing with you a recipe from Mrs. P. C. Coletta. Her Baked Chicken Souffle is so nice to serve for company or for Sunday dinner as it may be prepared the day before. Add vitamin packed buttered Broccoli spears, a fruit salad and light dessert, also made the day before--and you are ready to attend church without a worry about dinner.

This recipe serves 20. For family size, cut recipe in half.

BAKED CHICKEN SOUFFLE
(Page 23 E.H. Cookbook)
4 cups diced cooked chicken
3 or 4 tiny cans mushrooms
1/4 cup butter
1/2 cup mayonnaise
9 slices sharp cheese

4 eggs, well beaten
2 cups milk
1 tsp. salt
1 can undiluted celery soup
1 (4 oz) can pimentos (diced)
8 slices bread
2 cups coarse buttered bread crumbs

Line buttered baking dish with bread slices. Cover with chicken. Cook mushrooms in butter for 5 minutes, and spoon over chicken. Dot with mayonnaise. Top with cheese slices. Combine eggs, milk and salt. Pour over all. Mix soup and pimento and spoon over mixture. Cover and refrigerate overnight. Bake covered at 350 degrees for 1 1/2 hours. Uncover, top with buttered bread crumbs and brown about 15 min.

At this time of year, when we are using more canned and frozen foods, we should be aware of loss of food value through processing.
