Senior Citizens Visit Biltmore Estate

Early Tuesday morning, June 27, forty-three Senior Citizens and other Community Cen-ter persons boarded a bus for a trip to the Biltmore House and Gardens in Asheville. This trip was very enjoyable to these ladies. They enjoyed going through the large house, the beau-tiful gardens, and the trip to the greenhouse. W. A. M. Y. Community Action was sponsor of the trip. W. A. M. Y. also reminds readers that "Mountain Crafts" is now open. The shop is located on Highway 19E, between Burnsville and Spruce Pine, in the small building next to Fox's Outlet. Open Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of each week.

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR

The Monday morning CHILDREN'S HOUR at the Yancey County Public Library featured the filmstrip 5 Peas In A Pod. The children learned how peas grow from the film and the pea plants Mrs. Elaine Reed brought to the library. Following the film the children made drawings from the scenes they saw in the filmstrip.

The children were intro-duced to the tamborine and wood block rhythm instruments and learned to play "Join into the Game," with the new instruments.
