"Jesse Helms is not one of your back-slapping, hand-wringing, affable garden variety political office seekers." — Virginian Pilot 7/2/72

What kind of man is Jesse Helms? You might ask any of the more than 500 American service men with whom Jesse Helms corresponded regularly while they were on the other side of the world, in Vietnam. He was their friend — and for many of them, he seemed a member of their family. That's the kind of man Jesse Helms is... a man who believes in doing something himself for others, instead of waiting for the government to do it. A group of soldiers named their compound in Vietnam for Jesse Helms. They painted a sign declaring their friendship for him, and posted it outside. Jesse Helms is not a politician; he's a quiet, friendly citizen who is dedicated to the cause of freedom. That's why there is now a bipartisan effort to send Jesse Helms to the United States Senate. Wouldn't you like to be a part of this citizen crusade? Goodness knows, we need Jesse Helms in Washington!

YES, I believe in Jesse Helms and I want to help elect him as our Citizen-Senator. I'm enclosing my contribution of:
