Mrs. Carson Plato Gibson

Donna Parker And Carson Gibson Are United In Holy Matrimony

Miss Donna Ruth Parker and Carson Plato Gibson were united in marriage Saturday, September 30, 1972 at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Browns Creek Baptist Church.

The Rev. Glenn Walker, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Parker of Burnsville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Gibson Sr. of Spruce Pine.

Mrs. David Blevins was organist. Miss Luanne Banis was soloist.

Given in marriage by her brother Howard Parker, the bride wore a formal length gown of satapeau and chantilly lace. The smoothly fitted empress bodice was fashioned with a stand up Victorian collar and overlaid with a pearl and crystal beaded motif in front. Long bishop sleeves were fitted at the wrist with a pointed cuff with the same beaded motif. A panel of scalloped lace down each side of the A-line skirt with a border of scallops around the hemline. A chapel length train was diamond edged in the scallops.

She wore a peau covered camelot with a velvet bow on each side delicately beaded with pearls and holding an elbow-length bouffant veil. She carried white Bible covered with white orchid, daisies, mums, french mums, and silver streamers with love knots.

Miss Shelia Parker, sister of the bride was maid of honor. Her floor length ice blue satin gown featured an empire bodice banded with white satin ribbon. The back highlighted with self bow and streamers. Her off-face veil was attached to a satin bow and she carried a basket of blue and white daisies offset by blue ribbons.

Bridesmaids were attired identically to the maid of honor. They carried baskets of blue and white daisies with white ribbons. They were Mrs. Gabra Willis of Marion, sister of the bride, and Miss Perida Gibson, sister of the groom.

Denita Huskins, niece of the bride, of Marion, was flower girl. Her ice blue gown was identical to that of the maid of honor. She carried a basket of white mum petals.

Travis Speight, nephew of the groom was ring bearer.

Mr. Gibson served as the son's best man. Groomsman were Fred II and Framton Gibson, brothers of the groom and Jackie Parker, brother of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Parker entertained at a reception and cake cutting at the church following the rehearsal.

For their wedding trip to Florida the bride changed into an aqua princess-style dress with matching accessories and a detachable orchid corsage from her bouquet. Upon their return they are at home on Hall Town Road, Spruce Pine.

ON THE SQUARE IN BURNSVILLE

Lions Club Day

(Cont'd from page 1) sored by the Asheville Lions Club in 1949. Since then, it has raised funds for such activities as the Eye Clinic, the Hospital, Health Center, Scouts, Girls Haven, Boys Home, and a store on the square for Ralph Peterson, a former policeman blinded in the act of duty.

Lion John McLaugh is president of the local club. Since he was installed, the club has added ten new members and has assisted with the junk car removal project, has planned an eye screening project for pre-school children, and is aiding the Association for the Blind in a sale of blind made articles.

Lion Club Members will soon be contacting local merchants for help in making the Radio Day a successful project. If you should not be contacted and would like to participate please contact Paul Wooten, Chairman of the Radio Day Committee or by getting in touch with the local radio station. If the project proves successful, Lion Club Members in cooperation with WKYK, plan to make this an annual event.

Mrs. Ronald Ted McGee

Ronald McGee, Dinah Allen Are United In Matrimony

Mr. Ronald Ted McGee and Miss Dinah Kay Allen of Rt. 5 and Rt. 2, Burnsville were united in holy matrimony at the Blue Rock Baptist Church at 6:00 p.m. Saturday, October 7, 1972.

Mr. Ted McGee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. McGee of Eden, N.C. He is the grandson of Mr. Lawrence and Julie Cook of the 7-mile-ridge section, and Mr. Clay McGee of Strawberry Ridge. Miss Dinah Allen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Allen of Blue Rock Community. She is the granddaughter of Mr. Arnold and Pearl Thomas and Mrs. Eddie Robinson, both of Blue Rock. Rev. Lloyd Glenn of Pt. 1, Spruce Pine was the officiating minister.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Dan Allen. She was attired in a satin floor-length lace-covered gown featuring an empire waist, front satin loop and pearl button closing, with a low round neckline. The long lace set-in sleeves were gathered to a tiny satin cuff with satin loop and pearl button closing also. The layered wrist-length veil was attached to a satin headpiece composed of a layered satin bow, with small velvet leaves and tiny flowers with pearl centers, edging the bow. Small pearl loops and leaves forming a crown formed the background.

The bride carried her own lace-covered Bible with a covering of white, yellow and orange baby mums, giving way to streamers in the same array of fall colors. The dress, veil and headpiece were all designed and made by the bride.

The brides attendants included: Maid of honor, the sister of the bride, Miss Lila Mae Allen; a bridesmaid, Miss Patricia Jean Autrey, sister of the groom; and flower-girl, Miss Tracy Willis Allen, sister of the bride. The attire of all three was identical in style, featuring empire waistlines, low round necklines and front loop and button closings, with short puffed set-in sleeves. The fall colors used for their dresses included reddish orange, deep autumn gold and burning orange.

The dresses were made of polyester crepe material by the mother and sister of the bride. All attendants wore headpieces of net attached to layered bows, matching each attendant's own dress, and bouquets were of bronze, gold, orange, and yellow baby mums with streamers to match.

The best man was Lawrence Cook, grandfather of the groom, of Rt. 5, Burnsville. A reception was held in the home of the bride after rehearsal the night previous to the wedding. Members of the wedding party, Rev. Glenn, close friends and family attended.

The wedding music was furnished by Miss Jane Grace Allen, sister of the bride, and she was dressed in green, corresponding to the style of other attendants. The wedding party marched in to the Theme Song, from Romeo and Juliet, "A Time For Us". Following the double ring ceremony, Miss Allen played "We've Only Just Begun" by the Carpenters as the wedding party left the church.

The couple will reside at Rt. 2, Burnsville.
