Mrs. James Oliver Coffey

Rebecca Banks And James Oliver Coffey Are United In Holy Matrimony

Miss Rebecca Lee Banks became the bride of James Oliver Coffey at three o'clock Sunday, November 26th, 1972 at the Grassy Creek Presbyterian Church in Spruce Pine. The Rev. Bert Styles and Rev. Eldin Wells conducted the ceremony.

Rebecca is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobert B. Banks of Route 3, Burnsville. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Coffey of 60 Manetta Rd., Asheville, N. C.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long Empire gown of white velvet trimmed with Venice lace. The high collar and long cuffs were also trimmed with Venice lace, having Bishop sleeves. Her mantilla was of illusion completely bordered with Venice lace, attached to a camelot headpiece. She carried a long crescentshaped bouquet of small white orchids and rosebuds with a large detachable orchid center.

Mrs. Suzanne Webb, sister of the bride was matron of honor. She wore an empire gown with a tiffany pink chiffon bodice and deep wine velvet skirt, styled like the bride's. She carried a large cascade of pink pompoms and deep red rosebud bow for a headpiece.

Bridesmaids were Miss Melinda Jane Banks, sister of the bride and Miss Julianne E. Dunham of Greensboro. They wore Empire gowns with a tiffany pink bodice and deep wine velvet skirt. They also wore deep wine velvet bow headpieces. Miss Patricia Lynn Banks, sister of the bride was a junior bridesmaid. She wore an all velvet Empire gown with a deep wine bodice and tiffany pink skirt. She wore a pink velvet bow headpiece. They all carried colonial bouquets of pink pompoms with a red rose center. Miss Amanda Glenn of Spruce Pine was flower girl. She wore an all velvet gown with a wine bodice and pink skirt with a pink velvet bow in her hair. She scattered pink and red rose petals.

Miss Kay Hesson of Asheville and Miss Nancy Leckie of Oxford, N. C. were honor attendants.

The bridegroom's father, Mr. James M. Coffey, was best man.

Ushers were Mr. William Coffey of Fletcher, N. C., brother of the groom, and Mr. Keith Webb of Burnsville, brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a blue ensemble with matching blue accessories. The groom's mother wore a salmon dress with gold accessories. Both wore corsages of white rose buds.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Tom Lance of Statesville, North Carolina. Miss Deborah Edwards of Burnsville attended the guest register.

Mrs. George Roberts of Burnsville was director of the reception immediately following the ceremony at the church. A pink and white scheme was used. Assisting were Mrs. Fred Bacon of Burnsville, Miss Theresa Coletta, Burnsville, Mrs. Jennings Bryant of Spruce Pine, Mrs. Howard Pittman of Hickory, and Mrs. William Coffey of Fletcher.

The bride is a graduate of Harris High School, Spruce Pine and of Western Carolina University at Cullowhee and is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha. She has been employed by the Charlotte Mecklenburg Board of Education. The bridegroom is a graduate of Lee Edwards High School at Asheville and Western Carolina University at Cullowhee, N. C. He is employed by K. Mart Enterprises.

The couple will live at 441 Harding Place, Nashville, Tenn.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wayne Buster of Wilmington announce the approaching marriage of Mrs. Buster's daughter, Monica Lou Bacon, to Mr. George Morgan McWhirter, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Keith McWhirter of Burnsville, N. C. A December wedding is planned to be held in Wilmington.

Both Miss Bacon and Mr. McWhirter are currently employed in Fremont but formerly lived in Wilmington and are 1972 graduates of Wilmington High School.

Miss Bacon is assistant manager at Arthur Treacher's Fish and Chips in Fremont and her fiancé is employed at Dayton Marine Products, Inc. there.

Scholarship Recipients

Mary Adkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adkins of Route 1, Relief, and Benjamin Franklin George, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. George Sr. of Route 5, Burnsville, were both recipients of scholarship awards at Warren Wilson College this year. The students are both members of the sophomore class at Warren Wilson.

Mary received the "Glen Raven Mills" scholarship, given by the Gant Foundation to the student from Yancey County with a good academic record. Ben was the recipient of the
