It seems that about this time of year our meals sort of get the blah's. We are beginning to tire of the canned and frozen food we so carefully preserved this past summer. Fresh vegetables in the market are expensive and far from the high quality we get from our local gardens, so we begin to look for a change and try to find new ways of dressing up our old stand bys to make them more eye appealing and appetizing.

We hope you will enjoy these main-dish salad recipes. They are from Better Homes and Gardens Salad Book.

DUBLIN POTATO SALAD
2 Tbs. Vinegar
1 tsp. mustard seed
2 tsp. sugar
1 (12 oz) can corned beef chilled and cubed
1/4 cup sliced green onion
1/4 cup chopped dill pickle
1 cup Mayonnaise or salad dressing
1/4 cup milk
1 tsp. celery seed
about 3 med. large potatoes
2 cups finely shredded cabbage

Combine vinegar, celery seed and mustard seed-- set aside--pare and cook potatoes in enough boiling salted water to cover until tender; drain and cube. While potatoes are still warm, drizzle with vinegar mixture--sprinkle with sugar and 1/2 tsp. salt; chill. Before serving, add cabbage, corned beef, onion and pickles to potatoes. Combine mayonnaise, milk and 1/2 tsp. salt. Pour over mixture and toss lightly. Red cabbage would add color to this salad--six to eight servings.

Combine first six ingredients. To prepare dressing, blend together mayonnaise, chili sauce and 1/4 tsp. salt. Toss dressing with meat and bean mixture. Chill-- about 4 servings.

MEAT AND BEAN SALAD
1 CUP CUBED COOKED MEAT
1/2 cup sliced celery
3 tbs. chopped onion
1/3 cup mayonnaise
1 (8 oz) can kidney beans well drained
1 hard cooked egg
1 tbs. sweet pickle relish
1 tbs. chili sauce

Combine first six ingredients. To prepare dressing, blend together mayonnaise, chili sauce and 1/4 tsp. salt. Toss dressing with meat and bean mixture. Chill-- about 4 servings.

TOO LITTLE AND TOO MUCH

Too much or too little protection is no laughing matter when it comes to insurance. Gaps in protection can expose you to serious financial loss. Overlapping coverages result in your paying twice for the same protection. To avoid both dangers, call our agency.
