Area Judging To Begin

Annual judging to select the organized communities in Western North

Annual judging to select the organized communities in Western North Carolina that have made the greatest improvement during 1973 will start on Monday, November 12 and run thru Thursday, the 15th. The occasion will be the 24th annual area judging of the Western North Carolina Community Development Program. At stake will be top honors in the community improvement contest and over $5,000 in awards.

County winners, all previously announced, will be judged in competition in three divisions in accordance to the number of families. White Oak Creek, which will represent Yancey County in Division "A" (less than 75 families) will also be representing Yancey County in the annual youth judging of the WNC Community Development Program, Burnsville will be representing Yancey County in Division "C" (over 150 families). White Oak Creek will be judged on Community Development on November 14 at 1:30 p. m. and on its Youth Program around the 9th of November. Burnsville will be judged on November 14 at 11:15

Winners of the pioneering self help community improvement program, first of its kind in North Carolina, will be announced at the annual awards luncheon of the Western North Carolina Development Association on December 1 at the Grove Park Inn in Asheville. A total of 79 communities in 15 counties have participated in the program this year. Many other community clubs were active but did not compete in the judging.

Purpose of the Community Development Program, which is open to any organized community in the western counties, is to encourage people to work together to build better communities in which to live. For many years it has operated with a slogan "There is no limit to what a community can do--if it wants to." Aim of the youth program is to encourage participation of young people in community organizations and activities, development of leadership to promote adult leadership and support of youth and recreation programs.

food news & cues

By Mrs. Mary Gillespie

We often hear the expression: "As American as apple pie". Apple pie seems to be a favorite dessert, and every family probably has their favorite recipe. Apples are plentiful now and can be used in so many ways. We can have them every day and never tire of them.

We have selected some recipes you may enjoy that may differ from your old standbys.

FRESH APPLE KUCHEN

2 cups unsifted all-purpose flour
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. baking powder
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 lb. cooking apples
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1/4 tsp. nutmeg
2 egg yolks
1 cup heavy cream

- Turn into 9-inch round layer-cake pan; pat firmly against bottom and side of pan.
- Preheat oven to 400° F.
- Wash, pare, and core apples. Cut into 1/2 inch thick wedges; arrange in pastry lined pan.
