Note Of Thanks

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the many friends and neighbors who brought food and flowers and sent cards of sympathy at the time of my father's death. Your thoughtfulness was truly helpful at that time.

--Mrs. Doyce McClure and family.

The family of the late G.M. Angel wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for the great kindness and sympathy expressed in the way of beautiful flowers, cards, food and visits during the loss of our beloved husband and father.

For And About Homemakers

By Mary M. Deyton

Men's Wear Class in Progress

A series of Tailoring Men's Wear Workshops began October 4. The ladies enrolled in this class are making men's jackets from knit fabrics. For the more advanced homemaker, learning to sew for men can provide a real challenge.

Ladies enrolled in this workshop include Mrs. Warren Young, Mrs. Donald Ponder, Mrs. Wintz McIntosh, Mrs. Susan Ball, Mrs. Arthur Ball, Mrs. Ronald Tomberlin, Mrs. Hugh Pate and Mrs. Benny Ray Phillips. The workshops are being held on Thursday nights at the Cane River High School Home Economics Department.

Workshops Scheduled

Home Economics Extension Agents have announced plans for a number of crafts training workshops during the winter months.

Purpose of the workshops is to promote a quality crafts program for homemakers producing crafts for sale and to train leaders to return to their communities and share skills they have learned.

Instruction in Block and Leaf Printing, Candle Making, Macrame, Needlepoint, Quilting, Broom Making, Basket Weaving and Pine Cones and Native Materials will be offered. A twenty-hour course in Pine Cones and Native Materials will be held November 6, 13, 27 and December 4, Block and Leaf Printing, November 29 and Candle Making, December 12 and 13. Other classes will be scheduled for Jan., Feb. and March.

Homemakers desiring to enroll in one or more of these workshops should call the Exension Service 682-2119 for more information. Pre-registration is required on all workshops and details will be sent to homemakers who enroll.

Drama To Be Presented

Hartland Missionary Baptist Church of Morganton, N.C. will present a drama "I Dreamed I Searched Heaven For You," on November 10 at 7:00 p.m. at the Windom Baptist Church.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend this special program.
