GREAT SCOT!
RUN, ROBERT, RUN
He was born a Macgregor, he wed a Macgregor, but when he died 1734, he war't dead a Macgregor. He died as Rob Roy, the famous Scottish outlaw, who, according to the Teacher's Scotch Information Centre, owed a lot to an outlaw.
Early in life, because the English enacted laws designed to punish the Macgregor Clan for "crimes against the crown." Robert changed his name to Campbell. He became known as Rob Roy because of his flaming red hair.

He married Helen Mary, daughter of Macgregor of Comar, and when leader Macgregor died, Rob Roy became chief of the clan at the age of 22.
Raising cattle for a living, he borrowed money from the first Duke of Montrose. When the note became due and he wasn't able to pay, the Duke read Rob Roy the riot act. He was evicted from his estate and declared an outlaw. He lived in the Highlands with his loyal friends and supported himself by stealing from the Duke and his tenants.
Today, the outlaw who spent five years in the clink is saluted by a drink. Pour four parts Scotch and one part vermouth over the rocks, stir and add a twist of lemon peel. Named after the outlaw himself, the drink, which many Americans enjoy, can be accompanied by the toast "Hurray for Rob Roy!"

There's a word for the kind of woman who has control of everything but her money.

Dumb.
You may know her. The confident working-girl who's making it on her own. She has a nice apartment, stylish clothes, good taste in wines.
And no savings. She should discover the Payroll Savings Plan. It's simple to sign up at work. After that, an amount she specifies is set aside each payday and used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds.
With U.S. Savings Bonds, it doesn't take long to build up a healthy nest egg.
The Payroll Savings Plan--a smart way to stay in control.

Take stock in America.
Buy U.S. Savings Bonds
Now U.S. Bonds pay 6 1/2% interest when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% the first year). Bonds are required if lost, stolen, or destroyed. When needed they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.
