Cane River News Report

Confederate Completed

Shortly before Christmas holiday, there was a great hustle and bustle, especially for the Cane River Confederate staff. The hustle was to get the annual layout mailed. The bustle was trying to get the carbon-copy layout completed by the 19th of December. Fortunately, the staff really got going and forged ahead with the result—Success! As for the result of their efforts—well, they'll know in April. Right now? They're just enjoying the peace and quiet.
