Bear Hunt In Maine

Two Yancey County men recently returned from a Bear Hunting trip to Maine and a brief tour in Canada. Wesley Silvers and Burdette Deyton, both of Yancey County, each scored one bear kill. Silvers came in second place with the biggest bear while E.T. Taylor's group from the Eastern part of the state scored 4 bears, including the biggest one [shown above]. Wayne Hollifield's group from Old Fort did not make a kill. Neal Cassel, famous race car driver of Charlotte, also participated in the hunt and his group scored three bears. A total of nine bears was killed by the group of hunters, who also killed fifty coons.

Citizens Of Week Chosen

The Burnsville 6th graders voted for officers and committees two weeks ago, and the election results were: David Beaver, President; Brennen Hardy, Vice President; Tonya Allen, Secretary and Cynthia Whitson, Treasurer. The Burnsville 6th graders meet every Friday for a class meeting, during which they elect a "good citizen of the week". The results of this week's votes were Crystal McGalliard and Mike Wilson as this week's good citizens.
