Music In The Mountains:

Concerts End On Sunday

The Music in the Mountains annual series of concerts of fine chamber music will conclude for this summer with performances in Burnsville and at Warren Wilson College in Swannanoa. The programs will feature

Beethoven's Septet for string and wind instruments, and Benjamin Britten's Phantasy Quartet for oboe, violin, viola, and cello. Performer will be members of the Celso Chamber Players.

The Burnsville concert is at 3:30 Sunday, August 3, at the Burnsville Presbyterian Church. The Warren Wilson Concert is in the William Building Theater at 8:00 p.m. Saturday, August 2. Tickets are $2.50; students under 18, $1.

This season's concert have presented to local audiences the Celso Chamber Players, a group of the finest young artist musicians in America, in programs of great chamber music. The purpose of Music in the Mountains, a non-profit, locally directed organization, is the cultivation of chamber music in Western North Carolina.
