

Cane River News Report

On Saturday twenty girls, along with their advisors Mrs. Neill and Mrs. Whitson, from the Cane River Future Homemakers of America chapter attended the District VIII F.H.A. Rally at McDowell High School in Marion. More than 450 girls were present from 16 Western North Carolina counties.

Dr. Harley E. Jolly, historian from Mars Hill College, kept in mind the District and National theme, "A Past to Honor, A Future to Mold" as he spoke to a very attentive group of girls at the morning session. The afternoon session also attracted everyone's attention as the Buncombe County chapters gave us a look at "Yesterday and Today" through music, dance, and fashion to go along with the bicentennial theme.

The new state parliamentarian elected was Laura McGraw from Hendersonville and the candidate nominated to run for national office was Miss Joyce Wilson of Chase High School at Forest City. One of several special guests present was Mrs. Carla Crook, Home Economics Education Consultant from the State Department of Public Instruction. The F.H.A./HEW news was given to the chapters by the District VIII advisor, Mrs. Marie Buckner from North Buncombe High School. Joyce Wilson, the District VIII president, presided at the rally.

Mountain Heritage High has been asked to be the host school for the 1977-78 District VIII F.H.A. Rally.

GIRLS BASKETBALL TRYOUTS

On Wednesday, October 15, girls interested in playing varsity basketball for Mountain Heritage met in the gym at Cane River High School. There are 41 girls interested. The tryouts last from October 15 until Tuesday, October 21. All the girls worked extremely hard to get a position on the team. Varsity girls will be coached by Mrs. Beth Thomason. Girls J.V. tryouts will be held the last week in October. The J.V.'s will be coached by Mr. Blaine Whitson.

STUDENTS ATTEND OPEN HOUSE

On Saturday, October 11, twenty eight students from both Cane River and East Yancey High Schools met at 2:30 a.m. at the Yancey County Courthouse to make a trip to North Carolina State University in Raleigh. The purpose of the trip was to visit North Carolina State during Open House. On the way the students stopped for breakfast at Shoney's in Winston Salem. The students arrived at 11 a.m. and were registered. Then they ate lunch on campus. Once on campus everyone unloaded at the Student Center and was on his own until 3 p.m. The students then met back at the Student Center and boarded the bus for the journey home. As the students were leaving they drove through Raleigh and saw the State Capital and the Administration Building. The students stopped off for dinner in Winston Salem. It was around 10:30 when the students arrived back in Burnsville.

Mr. John Hensley, 4-H leader, was the bus driver. His wife, Mrs. Linda Hensley, an East Yancey teacher, and Mr. Bledsoe served as chaperones.

BETAS RALLY AT MADISON

By Donna England
On October 14, 1975, Beta Club members from Cane River and East Yancey attended the Beta Club District Rally at Madison High in Marshall. The purpose of this rally was to elect new district officers. Dairen Edwards from Cane River ran unsuccessfully for vice president. Harrell Wood, 1975 state and district president, presided over the meeting. Joyce Ingram, vice president, gave devotion, and Shay Pittman, secretary-treasurer, read the minutes.

The new Beta Club District officers elected at the meeting were as follows: President, Tommy Burr; Vice President, Tammy Odom; Secretary-Treasurer, Sam Ball.

There were four entries in the talent competition. The judges met and announced that Martha Westall from East Yancey was the winner. Martha sang, "The Morning After", accompanied by Billy Gouge.

The new officers were inducted by Mrs. John Maney, State Beta Sponsor. All Betas stood and sang, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee". The meeting was adjourned by the new District President, Tommy Burr. All Betas were served a delicious dinner by the Madison Betas in the cafeteria of Madison High.

DRAMA CLUB SEES PLAY

By Shirlyn Chandler
At 7:30 p.m. on October 16, members of the Cane River Drama Club went to Mars Hill College to see two plays given by college drama students. The two plays were "Sorry, Wrong Number" and "The Real Inspector Hound." Both were mysteries.

Mrs. Jean McQuade accompanied the following students to Mars Hill: Homer Hughes, Bill Fender, Treva Sayles, Cheryl Harper, Cathy Silvers, Karen Randolph, Peggy McQuade, and Tony Bailey. Mrs. Thomas, drama sponsor, met the students at Mars Hill and accompanied them to Owen Theater where the plays were given.

Heritage Football

Mountain Heritage and Mitchell met Saturday night in a game postponed because of rain. Mitchell came away with a 35-14 win over the Cougars.

Mitchell scored on its first possession of the night to take a 7-0 lead, but the Cougars scored soon to make the score 7-6. Then in the 2nd quarter Mitchell erupted for 3 TD's. This gave Mitchell a 28-7 lead but the Cougars scored just before halftime to cut the Mountaineers lead to 28-14. The second half both defenses controlled the game. Mitchell scored the only touchdown late in the 4th quarter. The final score was 35-14 Mitchell.

Coach Hughes commented: "This was a cutting loss for our team. We felt we had a great chance to upset them, but we played terrible defense in the first half. During the second half we played much better defense but failed to move the ball offensively. We did not play tough, hardnosed football Saturday night. I'm afraid they wanted the game a little more than we did. We have another rival game coming up Friday night and we'll work hard to win this one."

Heard On The Grapevine

BY DESSIE HONEYCUTT
The gardens are about all in cans and freezers, so the ladies are back in their centers.

Upper Higgins-Six members attended their center and quilted two quilts and tacked two.

Bowditch-Quilted two quilts last week and a Wedding Ring this week.

Burnsville-Had seven ladies present. They basted one quilt and quilted two. Mr. Clarence Sparks of the Wamy staff ate dinner with them.

Georges Fork-Mrs. Ada Jones was in Waynesville this past week, visiting her daughter.

Charlie Brown Road-Mrs. Pearl Banks spent last weekend in Shelby. She attended the Cleveland County Fair. These women have gotten their machine fixed and are pleased about it as a baby with a candy cane at Christmas.

Green Mountain-Tacked one quilt last week.

Hardscrabble-The ladies didn't meet but are ready to resume working any night members wish.

Upper Jacks Creek-The roof on this center will be repaired this week, the members have been told.

Lower Jacks Creek-Last week quilted fourteen quilts. This week they quilted eleven and basted fifteen. Little Creek-Four members met and made three quilts. Our center has just completed an upholstered 5 arm-chairs, 2 sofas, 2 rocking chairs, 12 dinette chairs and 10 cushions.

We are glad Pearl Fender's broken ankle is mending, so well. We miss Naomi Ledford in the center. She is very ill and her daughter has taken her to Marion to recuperate.

In a meeting Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. in the courtroom concerning the possibility of obtaining HUD monies for a second year, a very interested number of people gathered. The people agreed wholeheartedly about the needs of the western half of Yancey County. Fire departments, better housing, community centers and recreation were the primary needs. My community is a small one, Little Creek, but we had ten people there. I am proud of each one who cared enough to attend. Next time, come again, and bring your neighbor. That is an invitation to all communities.

HEALTH NEWS

from Pollard Drug

Avoid pain of varicose veins

Women affected by varicose veins or subject to developing them can relieve or prevent their discomforts by knowing what to do.

In mild cases, for instance, reduce pressure and improve circulation with light exercise such as walking. To aid the circulation of blood through weak veins which might otherwise become varicose, elastic support hose found in our pharmacy should be used. At night aching and swelling can be relieved by elevating the legs. Finally, I recommend breaking up long periods of sitting or standing by flexing the leg muscles regularly.

These tips can help you prevent unpleasant surgery, so take them to heart. Bring Your Next Prescription To Us After Seeing Your Doctor. Our Service Is Unbeatable!
