Best, McKinney Are United In Marriage

Wedding vows were exchanged between Vickie Jean Best and Tracy Vann McKinney in an evening ceremony on October 18, at Beaverdam Baptist Church, Canton, N.C. Rev. Jack Scott, pastor of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony. Wedding music was presented by Miss Rinda Byers, pianist, and Mrs. Helen McKinney, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll R. Best of Canton, N.C. and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S.D. McKinney, Jr. of Burnsville.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown, made by her aunt, Mrs. Russell Robinson, was made of white satin with an overlay of white miramist chiffon, with a square neckline and long cuffed sleeves. The empire waistline fell in a chapel length train. French imported lace accented the neck, sleeves, waist and train. Her waistlength veil of illusion was attached to a matching headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white roses, pink carnations and ivy.

Mrs. Melvin Smathers of Canton was matron of honor. Her dress was of light blue polyester crepe with a square neckline and long full sleeves. The empire waistline was accented with pink velvet ribbon. She wore a pink and blue bow in her hair and carried a pink long stemmed mum.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles McKinnish of Canton, Miss Ginger Clark of Canton, Mrs. Marcia McKinney, sister of the bridegroom, of Burnsville, Miss Regina Best was junior attendant. Their dresses were of the same style as that of the matron of honor, and made of light blue polyester crepe with pink flowers. They wore pink and blue bows in their hair and carried pink mums.

Miss Amy Smathers of Canton was a miniature bride. She carried two long stemmed red roses, which the bride presented to her mother and the groom's mother as she entered the church. Miss Hope Price of Canton was flower girl. Master Martin Ledford of Burnsville was ring bearer.

Mr. S.D. McKinney, Jr. served as his son's best man. Ushers were Ronnie Best, brother of the bride, Joy Byers of Canton, Darrell Boone and Jimmy Norris of Burnsville, and Carroll Cook, who was junior usher.

The brides book was kept by Mrs. Dennis Huskins and scrolls were dispersed by Miss Jane Rathbone.

A reception followed at the church. Assisting were Mrs. Boyd Rathbone, Mrs. Benny Cook, Mrs. Robert Cole, Mrs. Guy Boone, Sabra Phillips, and Mrs. Ronald Howell.

The bride's mother chose a floor length gown of pink polyester. The bodice was covered in matching lace with long lace sleeves. She wore an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a floor length gown of pale blue satin, overlaid with matching lace.

For the wedding trip the bride changed to a light brown street length dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white roses from her bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Pisgah High School and Haywood Technical Institute with an Applied Science Degree in Medical Office Assistant. The bridegroom is a graduate of East Yancey High School and Haywood Technical Institute, with an Applied Science Degree in Forest Management. He is employed in Kentucky where the couple will reside.
