

Cane River High School Students Crown 'Miss Bicentennial 1976'

On Monday, February 9, Sherry Silvers, a junior, was crowned 'Miss Bicentennial 1976' in the Cane River gym. The crowning was the culmination of an idea that began in journalism class last November. Since January and

February are usually not very exciting school months, the class decided to have a program to fight boredom in a bicentennial way and, at the same time, make some money to help pay for printing costs of the Rebel for the remainder of the year. Each homeroom was asked to elect a contestant and to prepare some form of talent to represent the group.

On Friday, February 6, each homeroom's contestant was introduced and its talent was displayed for the student body. At the conclusion of the program, students were asked to mark their ballots, voting for the contestant of their choice.

On Monday, February 9, the student body was again called to the gym to hear the five finalists named and to see the winner crowned. First runner-up was Brenda Fox, a junior; second runner-up was Sandra Fox, a sophomore; third runner-up was Sheila McIntosh, a freshman; fourth runner-up was Jill Peterson, a freshman.

Other contestants were Kitty Higginbotham, Robin Hylemon, freshmen; Glenda McIntosh, Anna Webb, Pam McCurry, sophomores; Loretta Canipe, Betty Hyleman, juniors; and Nina Ledford, Diana Troup, Pat McIntosh, seniors.

The Rebel staff would like to express its sincere gratitude to everyone who helped make the "Miss Bicentennial 1976" program possible, and especially to Mr. Hawkins for being an indispensable Master of Ceremonies. Thanks also to the staff's own Phillip Ray for being a great director.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETS

By Lisa Fender
On Tuesday, January 27, the Student Council met to discuss plans for using the gym during lunch period on bad weather days. It will be used for playing basketball and volleyball. The Council discussed the rules and decided who would supervise. There will be another meeting in February.

February 8 through 11 was National Future Homemakers of America Week. Half-a-million high school home economics students across the county who are members carried out special projects and activities during the week. The Cane River FHA made a small gift for each teacher to show the students' appreciation, and composed a Bicentennial Cookbook. Also, on February 11 the club held a birthday party celebrating the 30th birthday of the FHA.

Freshman Take IQ Test

The freshman classes at Cane River took achievement tests recently. The tests lasted the latter part of January and the first few days of February. These tests were supervised by Miss Elaine Ray, guidance counselor. The tests took all day to complete.

Seniors Are Screened

On Wednesday, January 28, the seniors at Cane River High School were screened during fifth and sixth period by the Health Occupation II students with the supervision of Mrs. Nancy Shaw and Karen Black, both RN's. The students were checked for various things concerning their health. Information collected will be recorded in the students' permanent records. Students who were not screened due to the lack of time will be screened at a later date which will be announced.

Lisa Waldrop Is Valentine Sweetheart

Lisa Michelle Waldrop of Asheville was crowned Valentine Sweetheart on Saturday night, February 7, in Kingsport, Tennessee. She is seven years old and the daughter of Carolyn Johnson Waldrop of Asheville, formerly of Burnsville, and Allan Waldrop of Weaverville. Seventy-five girls participated in the Pageant.

Lisa is a second grade student at Vance Elementary School and a dance student at Fletcher School of Dance. She loves getting letters from people, playing with her daschund, modeling, and making new friends. She is the reigning Little Miss North Carolina and will represent the state in Roanoke, Va. in June, competing for the National Little Miss title. She will also compete in the North American Little Miss Pageant to be held in Louisville, Ky. in August. She was first runner-up in the N.C.
