Revival Slated; English Evangelist Is Chaplain With Royal Marines

Rev. J.K. Watson, Chaplain with the Royal Marines of England, will be the visiting evangelist for revival services at Martin's Chapel United Methodist Church, Newdale, April 11-16.

Rev. Watson has just returned to England from exercises in Norway with the Royal Marines. He served 4½ years apprenticeship as a marine fitter completing his training as a draughtsman, then 2 years as an engineer in the merchant marines, traveling mainly in the Far East.

After becoming a Christian and answering the call to preach, he attended the Theological College in Birmingham, England. Under appointment of the British Methodist Church, he and his wife worked in South Sumatra, Indonesia, in community development, setting up farmers cooperatives, family planning and assisting local pastors and churches in church extension and evangelism. He joined the Royal Navy in November 1973, and successfully completed the Royal Marine Commando Course to qualify for the "Green Beret". He is the only Royal Navy Chaplain to be both Mountain and Arctic warfare trained and parachute trained.

Rev. Watson will be accompanied to Newdale by his wife, Margaret, and the oldest of their three children, Elizabeth, aged 5.

The services at Martin's Chapel will begin at 7:30 each evening. A special children's service will be held each evening, Monday through Friday, at 4:30 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Postmaster Warns Of Chain Letter Fraud

Postmaster Banks cautioned the public to be especially alert for numerous current chain letters which contain a claim that they have been reviewed by some legal authority and officially approved for mailing.

"This is not true," Banks said, "and I would appreciate having all chain letters received in this area promptly turned over to me or Postal Inspectors so that we can help protect the public from this illegal activity."
