Comments From Cattail Creek

BY MRS. NEVA RENALDO
Cattail Correspondent

Helen Underwood is back in our midst after spending almost two months with her 91 year old mother in Chicago, while her sister spent six weeks touring the Scandinavian Countries.

Helen reports having seen some excellent shows while in Chicago—Her mom is most alert and enjoyed not only the shows but did a good bit of entertaining while Helen was there—Bravo! Hope you have many more enjoyable years.

Needless to say Helen was happy to return to the mountains and the lovely "Huff and Puff" cabin she shares with friend Catherine Walters.

Gary and Connie Pinder dropped in from Atlanta to spend a few days with the Sr. Pinders. They are a delightful young couple. We hope to see more of them in the near future.

Jim and Sue Gronquist who recently moved to George Town where Jim is studying law at Antioch College, arrived to spend a week with Jim's mom, Mrs. Gladys Gronquist.

Jean Ray of Greensboro with her two little girls, have just spent a week with Grandmother Gronquist also.

Joan Schultz is in to stay a few weeks with her mom and sister at Gateway Lodge.

The Leon Taylors have just spent a week with us after celebrating their 25th wedding Anniv. in Atlanta. We hope you have another happy 25 years.

Mrs. James is in at her cabin for a pleasant few weeks. We see very little of Mrs. James lately.

The Catharts who recently settled in at Cattail spent last week in Nashville and Pulaski, Tn.

Mary Dewey has had lots of family this past week—son Harold Hayes and family were in as well as daughter, Mrs. Don Apherton and her family. A small reunion.

Again let me remind you of our "Trash and Treasure Sale" Thursday, July 29, and Friday, July 30 from 11 till 5 both days. Come and bring your friends for plenty of bargains.

Also the "Cake Walk" Friday, July 30 at 7:30 p.m. There is always plenty of excitement and fun. And someone has to win all those delicious homemade cakes. Come and enjoy the evening with us.

Also remember August 5, Thursday, we will be taking our Train Trip. Hope you can all be on board with us for a fun-filled afternoon. Call Agnes Dolle for more information.

In the meantime the Bingo games still continue on Wednesday nights at 7:30. Do come join us and get acquainted.

Buchanan Soars Above Grandfather

Hang Gliding At Grandfather Mtn.

The Eastern America hang gliding mountain soaring record was smashed at Grandfather Mountain Wednesday when 19-year-old Scott Buchanan flew above the peaks of this 5,964-foot travel attraction for seven hours and 10 minutes.

Buchanan, a member of the Grandfather Mountain staff, launched his Seagull IV hang glider from the second peak at 1:15 p.m., and did not touch ground again until 8:25 p.m. when he landed at the nearby MacRae Meadows Highland Games track.

Buchanan, a native of Amherst, N.H., estimates that he averaged soaring at about 20 miles per hour, meaning that he traveled approximately 150 miles during his record flight. The previous Eastern America mountain soaring record was five hours, 48 minutes; the prior Grandfather Mountain soaring record was three hours, 30 minutes. Scott Buchanan is pictured during his record flight and afterwards, tired but happy.

food news & cues

BY DONNA McLAIN
Extension Homemaker
Here are some tasty desserts using health foods such as peanuts and raisins. Try them for a real treat.

PEANUT BUTTER FUDGE CAKE
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 cup creamy peanut butter
2 1/2 cups sugar
1 1/2 tsp. vanilla
3 eggs
3 (1 oz.) squares unsweetened chocolate (melted)
3 cups all purpose flour

1 1/2 tsp. baking soda
3/4 tsp. salt
1 1/2 cups ice water (peanut butter fudge frosting)
Cream together butter, peanut butter, sugar, vanilla and eggs. Add melted chocolate, blend well. Sift together dry ingredients and add alternately with water to batter. Begin and end with the dry ingredients. Pour into 3 eight inch greased layer pans, or a 10 inch tube pan. Bake in preheated 350 degree oven until done (top will spring back when pressed) 30-35 minutes for layers, 1 hour for the tube pan. Frost with Peanut Butter Fudge Frosting. Half frosting recipe for tube cake. Makes three 8 inch layers or one 10 inch tube cake.

2 cups sugar
Melt chocolate and peanut butter in a heavy saucepan over low heat. Stir to blend. Add cream, stirring, then add sugar. Cook over low heat until it reaches soft ball stage. Cool. Beat until creamy. Spread on cake layers.

SPICY PEANUT RAISIN PIE

3 eggs
1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup dark corn syrup
1/2 cup melted butter
1/2 cup raisins
1 cup chopped peanuts
1 tbs. white vinegar
1 tsp. vanilla
1/8 tsp. cloves
1 unbaked 9 inch deep dish pie shell

Beat eggs. Add sugar, syrup and melted butter. Mix well. Stir in remaining ingredients. Pour into an unbaked 9 inch pie shell. Bake at 350 degrees for 40 minutes or until set. Makes a 9 inch pie.

PEANUT BUTTER FUDGE FROSTING
2 (1 oz) squares unsweetened chocolate
1/2 cup peanut butter
1 cup light cream

R. P. "Bo" Thomas

Democrat for U. S. Congress

Bo Thomas believes that Congress has been dominated by lawyers looking after the special interests for too long. He will look after your interests.

Bo Thomas believes our nation's tax laws have been written to reward some special interest groups and put the burden on the rest of us. He wants to work for a tax code that is clear and fair.

Bo Thomas, like you, is burdened with high electric, heating and water bills. He will do all in his power as a Congressman to keep our bills from going higher.

So, vote R. P. "Bo" THOMAS for Congress!
