'South Pacific' At Parkway

SOUTH PACIFIC, Rodgers and Hammerstein's popular musical, is being performed at Parkway Playhouse in Burnsville, August 4-7 and August 10-14 at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are $3.50 for adults and $2.25 for pre-college students. Parkway is closing its thirtieth season by running the musical for two weeks because of its popularity. THE SOUND OF MUSIC, also by Rodgers and Hammerstein, broke all previous sales records for a show at Parkway in 1975. Dr. John Joy is directing SOUTH PACIFIC and also directed THE SOUND OF MUSIC. His cast features six professional performers and guest artist Luvenia Garner who will portray "Bloody Mary." Amy Young from Asheville and Brian Buchanan from Burnsville (both pictured above) will be playing the two children's roles in the show. College students from all areas of the country who comprise the Parkway Company will complete the cast.

South Toe Firemen Complete Arson Detection Course

Six members of the South Toe Volunteer Fire Department recently participated in a 12 hour Arson Detection course held at McDowell Tech in Marion. Firefighters and police officers from a six county area attended the course which was given Thursday and Friday evenings, and all day Saturday, July 22-24. The instructor was Calvin F. Beck, of Cary, N.C., a well-known authority in this field.

Those attending from the STVFD were Chief John V. Morgan, Capt. Gavriel Goldstein, Lt. George Powers and Firefighters David Gelling, Ben Geouge and Brian Yaffe. During the Saturday session, Mr. Beck and his assistants arranged for the burning of an old house, demonstrating many of the arson techniques discussed in the classroom sessions, in order to give participants experience in looking for evidence of arson.

Several months ago some of the same firefighters attended a similar course in Asheville, given by Mr. Beck. They were so impressed with

Mr. Beck's wealth of knowledge on the subject that they welcomed another opportunity to learn more from him.
