Children's Artwork Displayed In Library

Child Development Center To Open In Bald Creek

The prospective date for the opening of the new Bald Creek Child Development Center is the middle of September, 1976. The Center will be certified to care for 40 children-infants through five year olds.

This summer the children visited the Asheville Airport, Yancey Fire Department, and Bantam Chef. They have taken field trips and gone to Black Mountain Campground for a picnic. The four and five-year-olds got to attend a play given by ASU students and have enjoyed visits to the Yancey Library each Monday where "Miss Teresa" introduces new books, filmstrips and activities to the children. Her suggestion to display the children's artwork at the library instilled within the children a sense of pride and accomplishment. The display will remain at the library through August.

The staff is enrolled in early childhood education classes, and training consultants from Region D Council of Governments and ASU have visited the Center to offer new ideas for the improvement of the Center.

Daily menus are planned by a state certified nutritionist and mailed to the Center every six weeks.

Announced By Board:

School Food Policy

Yancey County School Food Service announced today its policy for free and reduced-price meals, free milk for children unable to pay the full price of meals and milk served under the National School Lunch, School Breakfast, and Special Milk Programs.

Local school officials have adopted the family size income criteria shown below (following this article) for determining eligibility.

letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals and milk for them, it should contact the school.

Under the provisions of the policy, the School Food Service Supervisor will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. If he wishes to make a formal appeal, he may make a request either orally or in writing to Edgar F. Hunter, Yancey County Board of Education, Drawer 218, Burnsville, N.C. 28714 (704)

Application forms are being sent to all homes in a 682-6401 for a hearing to appeal the decision. The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

If a family member becomes unemployed or if family size changes, the family should contact the school to file a new application. Such changes may make the children of the family eligible for reduced price meals, or for additional benefits such as free meals and milk if the family income falls at or below the levels shown above.

In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, or national origin.

Each school and the Board of Education Office has a copy of the complete policy which may be reviewed by any interested party.

Following is the income scale used by Yancey County School Food Service to determine Free and Reduced-Price Meals and Free Milk in the 1976-77 school year:

Refilling prescriptions: a law you should know

Contrary to popular belief, a pharmacy cannot refill a prescription originally filled by another drug store. Neither can we call that same drug store for refill authorization. Both acts are illegal and punishable under law.

About the only thing we can do, at the risk of interfering with his own patients, is to call the prescribing Doctor to get refill orders. But expediency recommends that you plan ahead by having all your prescriptions filled at the same pharmacy you intend to have future refills dispensed.

Through our door walk the finest people on earth... Our customers. We save them money on every purchase.
