

Cattail Creek Report

BY MRS. NEVA RENALDO
Cattail Correspondent

The Cattail Homeowners meeting convened at the community hall after a sumptuous covered dish dinner.

The following offices were filled: President Swen Karmark; Vice President, Mrs. Walter Klements; Secretary, Miss Helen Underwood; Directors, Harold Gronquist and Neva Renaldo. Charley Rathburn was again appointed caretaker for the year.

The Gronquists had a small family reunion over the weekend. The Harold Gronquist family of Ft. Lauderdale, the Jerry Ray family of Greensboro, Jim and Sue Gronquist of Washington, D.C. Also a few non-family guests were the Charles Lees of Greensboro and the Snable family of Ft. Lauderdale. Things were really jumping around that cabin.

The Marcus Cornelius family arrived from Virginia in time for the annual meeting and will be with us a few more weeks.

We welcome Bob and Gayle Kemper of Kemper's Cove to the area.

The excitement is running high at Richardson's "Out O' Sight" cabin. Mrs. Richardson's two sisters, Dora Favalora and Dee Marcus, with her two children have arrived from New Orleans--also two nephews, Dale and Wade. I believe it is their first trip to these mountains and they are enjoying the Cattail atmosphere to its fullest.

The Secrest family have taken off for Myrtle Beach for a week, before returning to Chapel Hill to resume their active life at the University there.

The Bob Kemper's first houseguests at Kemper's Cove were David and Susan Greenburg of Miami.

The Schnupp cabins have been very much alive this past week. Linda and Bob Peacock with daughter Kelly have been visiting with mother Schnupp. Also son-in-law Rick Huber and grandson Mark Huber have been keeping things buzzing there.

The Simons and the Horvaths have been enjoying some well earned time at their respective cabins.

Layton Tyner is back from 6 weeks in Germany and has many exciting experiences to relate (Oh to be 16 again!)

We are all most pleased to have Bill Heckart back home with us and hope his recovery will be a speedy one.

Just a few more nites of Bingo--so do join us on Wednesday nights at 7:30. Hope to see you there.

WNC Bluegrass Festival Slated

WNC's original Bluegrass Festival begins Thursday, August 19, at the Kent Wiseman Memorial Park 8 miles north of Spruce Pine on 19E. Pickin', singin', and cloggin' will end after midnight on Saturday, August 21. Headlining the 3-day music festival are Mac Wiseman, the Lewis Family, Charlie Moore, Eddie Adcock, Ralph Stanley, and Don Reno.

Five years of continuous improvement to the permanent festival grounds make it possible to enjoy the beautiful mountain vacationland, the Best of Bluegrass, good home cooking, and still be comfortable with convenient parking, permanent restrooms, and ample shelter and shade. Tickets are available for one to three days. Rough camping is plentiful at the site. You all come! Rain or shine! Photo by Westveer
