

Brownies Enjoy Egg Hunt

songs at Mrs. G.C. Robinson's [two Christmas songs and one solo of White Christmas sung by Robin Tschudy]. The tape was later broadcast over WKYK. The Brownies were given a tour of WKYK and also toured the Burnsville Veterinary Clinic with Dr. Jeanette Maddox. Highway Patrol Trooper Morrison gave a talk to them on the activities of the Highway Patrol, and the Brownies also had a barbecue cookout at the Tschudy residence.

School Sponsors Book Fair

The Cane River Middle School in Burnsville will sponsor a student book fair from April 18 to April 22. Students will be able to browse and purchase books. The book fair will be open during the hours of 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Books will be on display in the Library.

The book fair committee invites all students, parents and visitors to attend the fair. The fair will encourage students' interest in reading and in building home libraries, and will also contribute to a worthwhile project. All profits will be used for books, audio-visual material and other supplies.

The project is sponsored by Mrs. Cathy Good, Librarian, and will be aided by members of the Beta Club.

The book fair display will include attractive new books from many publishers in all popular price ranges: wonderful books to read or to give as gifts. All reading interests will be represented, including classics, fiction, biographies, adventure stories, science, nature, crafts, mystery and reference books. The committee is working with Educational Reading Service, a professional book fair company, to furnish an individual selection of books for the fair.

LaBach Concert Slated

A program of songs composed by Parker LaBach will be presented in the next Music in the Mountains concert on Tuesday, April 19, at 8 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church, Burnsville.

Julie Fortney, soprano, will be the soloist. She is Assistant Professor of Voice at Mars Hill College and soloist at All Souls Church in Asheville. The pianist will be Dan Hardin who is a graduate of Mars Hill College and organist at the First Baptist Church of Asheville.

The song selected for the program range from serious to humorous, secular to sacred, and include a number of settings of poems for children.

Before coming to live near Spruce Pine, Dr. LaBach taught music and education at Kent State University, Syracuse University, and elsewhere, and has been an active composer as well. The present program will be the first public performance of his songs in this area.

Admission is $2 at the door.
