

GIRLSCOUT NEWS

BY BEE YOUNG
Cadette GS Reporter
 The Cadette Girl Scout meeting April 6, 1977 began with Easter egg decorating. Colored eggs were trimmed with butterflies and colored cracked eggs were filled with cotton chicks. These were used to decorate an Egg Tree which the girls took to Haven Heights Rest Home.

Elisia Higgins, Leanne McCurry, Dawn McDonald, Tamara Price, Angie Wheeler, Brenda Williams, Tanis Wilson, Bee Young, Mrs. McCall and Mrs. Cannon decorated the Egg Tree at Haven Heights and then sang for the residents.

After returning to the Catholic Church where the Cadettes meet, girls rehearsed a Scout fun song. Each Cadette left with a cracked egg hatching a cotton ball chick. Thanks to Brenda Williams and her mother, there were plenty of cracked egg shells for the chicks.

Hope your Easter was happy. Happy Spring!

Home Start Graduation

Yancey Home Start had their graduation celebration on March 30, 1977 at the Yancey Head Start-Home Start Center. The group of parents and children were shown films on health and safety, and fairy tales. A luncheon was prepared by the Center staff, followed by an Easter egg hunt. Each child received a certificate of merit for their year of achievement.

If anyone wishes to enroll their child in the Head Start or Home Start program, call 765-9626 for information.

Easter Egg Hunt

Region D Home Teachers Patsy Miller and Marsha Sigmon held an Easter egg hunt on Thursday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church, Burnsville, for the children they visit. Pictured are the children and some of the mothers who attended.

Pistachio Playhouse
