

Effler And Autrey Are United In Holy Matrimony

Miss Jewell Leigh Effler became the bride of Emerson Howard Autrey on Saturday, April 9 at 2:00 p.m. at Mt. Mitchell Baptist Church in Burnsville, North Carolina.

Rev. Charles E. Willis performed the double ring candlelight ceremony. Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Jessie Willis from the selections of "More (theme from Mondo Cane)," "Because," "O' Perfect Love," "Oh Promise Me," "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," and the wedding march from a "Midsummer Night's Dream."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy W. Effler of Route 5, Burnsville. The groom is the son of Mrs. Ada Belle Autrey and the late Howard W. Autrey, also of Route 5, Burnsville.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ankle length white polyester dress with a high neckline, long sleeves, and a rhinestone sprinkled belt. Her chapel length mantilla was edged in lace with a finger-tip veil. Her bouquet was made of red, yellow, green, and white carnations with daisies and baby's breath.

Miss Joan Everhart of Winston Salem was maid of honor. She wore an ankle length green and yellow checked polyester dress with a yellow wide brimmed hat and carried a bouquet of yellow and green long-stemmed carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Deborah Robinson of Burnsville and Miss Carole Wilkins of Rutherfordton. They wore ankle length polyester dresses of spring colors with white wide brimmed hats and carried bouquets of red and yellow long-stem carnations.

William Effler, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were David Wilson and Rickey Autrey, cousin of the groom.

The bride's book was kept by Miss Vickie Tolley, cousin of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride. Mrs. Paul Briggs and Mrs. Jerry McMahan presided over the cake and punch bowl.

Mrs. Autrey is a graduate of East Yancey High School. She attended Western Carolina University for two years and is now completing her last quarter of study in Business Administration at Mayland Technical Institute, Spruce Pine.

Mr. Autrey is a graduate of Mayland Technical Institute with a degree in Automobile and Diesel Mechanics. He is presently employed at Pritchard's Lumber Company.

The couple will reside at Route 5, Burnsville.

Out of town guests who attended the wedding and other bridal festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McEntyre, Jr. and girls from Greenville, S.C.; Mrs. Elizabeth Banks and Keith of Chuckey, Tenn.; Mrs. Jack Grady and Shelia; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Guinn; Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Berry and David; and Mrs. Horace Wilson, all of Morganton; Mr. and Mrs. James Lane and Mr. Cecil Effler of Marion; Mrs. B.G. Deal of Forest Hill, Md.; Mrs. Jeannette Leak of Clarksville, Md.; Mrs. Charles Wilkins of Spartanburg, S.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wilkins and boys of Rutherfordton; Mrs. Kay Blankenship and Miss Sherry Blankenship of Spruce Pine.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Autrey

PUT IT IN THE WANT ADS FOR RESULTS

Veterans, Employers To Meet

A get together of employers and veterans will be held on Friday, May 6, 1977, 10:00 a.m. at the National Guard Armory on Highway 176 (Spartanburg Highway), approximately two miles south of Hendersonville, N.C.

Employers are encouraged to represent their company in person or by display and brochure (under no obligation). Hopefully you will meet a veteran with qualifications and skills whom you would hire.

Whether or not an employer has a job opening now, this is a good opportunity to meet, observe and talk to good prospects under informal, relaxed conditions.

If you would like to be represented at this widely-publicized event, please call Mr. John Murdock, Manager, Hendersonville Employment office, Phone 693-1703.

Veterans seeking work are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to locate work and personally promote themselves to a large array of employers.

Celebrates 86th Year

Mary Wallace, originally from Burnsville, of Lincolnton, North Carolina, celebrated her 86th birthday on April 11, 1977. A party was given in her honor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Cooper, in Lincolnton. Three of her other daughters also attended: Lidia Hudgins of Houston, Texas, Myrtle Blankenship of Burnsville, and Atlas Bumgardner of Lincolnton. There were approximately 35 other family members and friends attending.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

March 31 marked the end of the largest and most successful Girl Scout Cookie Sale ever in western North Carolina. During the ten-week campaign Girl Scouts ranging in age from 7 to 17 sold over 136,000 boxes of Girl Scout Cookies. Over $15,000 will remain in the 240 individual troops served by the Pisgah Girl Scout Council for future program and activity development. The remaining funds will be used for maintenance of Council owned camps; purchase of equipment for day and resident camps; further expansion of the outdoor scouting program; and to supplement operating budget.

The Girl Scouts thank everyone who has supported the Scouting Program through the purchase of these cookies. Special thanks is extended to Mrs. James W. Stickney III, Council Cookie Coordinator and to Neighborhood Cookie Chairman Mrs. Eloise Williams of Burnsville for the Yancey County Girl Scout Neighborhood.

First Photo From GS Camera

BY BEE YOUNG, GS REPORTER

At the April 13th meeting, Cadette Girl Scouts examined their new troop camera. Mrs. McCall took the first picture of the group at the Tyner Ice Cream Dipper and Deli. Cadettes will assist Snow White's seven dwarfs at the Pistachio Playhouse Saturday Afternoon, April 23 at 2:30 p.m. Rhonda Dry asked the Cadettes to come to The Dipper to find out about their roles as assistant dwarfs. Rhonda is also helping the Troop with a skit to be presented as a part of their program at the American Legion meeting April 26. Angie Wheeler served refreshments; Joy Bennett organized the Flag Ceremony and was song leader.

Pictured left to right: Donna Braithwalte, Bee Young, Tamera Price, Lisa Grindstaff, Brenda Williams, Angie Wheeler, Tanis Wilson and Joy Bennett.

Jenny Burgin

Appeal For Jenny

This is an appeal by the Radio Patrol for HELP for the daughter of Dennis and Judy Burgh. Her name is Jenny; she is 15 months old. She is in a hospital at Memphis, Tennessee dying of bone cancer. The doctors say there is no hope for her. She can be kept alive for a few months by blood transfusions and medicine. The medicine will bring all her hair out and cause sores in her mouth. The parents are staying with her in Memphis. They have a four year old son at home.

They are in great need for financial help, with the hospital and doctor bills. They have no insurance at all. All help will be greatly appreciated. The Radio Patrol will have a Road Drive next Sunday, April 24, for Jenny.

BURNSVILLE OPTOMETRIC CENTER

Will Open

Tuesday, March 29th at 9:00

Dr. H.B. Hahn

Dr. R.H. Dickey

Banks Family Square
Burnsville, N.C. 28714

704-682-6417

HOURS: 9-5 Tues.-Thurs.-Sat.
APPOINTMENTS SUGGESTED

Say hello to Mountain Dew in the Gallon Pack.

Say hello to a whole gallon of sunshine-bright Mountain Dew in eight 16-oz. returnable bottles. That's more than twenty-five 5-ounce servings of Mountain Dew, the unique, lemony soft drink from the makers of Pepsi-Cola.

EIGHT BOTTLES

Mountain Dew

8-16 OZ BOTTLES (128 FL OZ)

Hello Sunshine. Hello Mountain Dew.

BOTTLED BY Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co., Spruce Pine, N.C. UNDER APPOINTMENT FROM PepsiCo, INC., PURCHASE, N.Y.