BY BEE YOUNG
Cadette GS Reporter
At the last regular Cadette Girl Scout meeting on May 25, 1977, Bee Young served refreshments. Invitations were given to Cadettes for a cookout at Mrs. Patti McCall's given by Mrs. McCall and Mrs. Cannon at the McCall home, June 1, at 6 p.m. "Come to a Honey of a Party" read the invitations.

Patrolman A.T. Morrison was a special guest at the meeting. He discussed safety with the girls, answering numerous questions. The Cadettes and their leaders learned much and benefitted from the Safety Program. Thank you, Patrolman Morrison.

Salute to Dairying

What You Can Do To Promote JUNE DAIRY MONTH

YOU CAN use genuine dairy products and urge your friends and neighbors to do the same.

YOU CAN actively promote dairy products by being well informed about their nutritive benefits and passing that knowledge on to others.

YOU CAN cooperate with other dairy farmers to develop a promotional program and get nonsupporters to participate.

YOU CAN support the year-round non-brand promotion programs of United Dairy Industry Association (UDIA).

YOU CAN use bumper stickers advertising milk and milk products.

YOU CAN use your influence to have genuine dairy products served at meals and as refreshments at church and school affairs, farm meetings, community gatherings, clubs and other organizations to which you belong.

YOU CAN actively participate in public education programs, such as school-farm visits, to help bridge the communication gap between farmers and consumers.

YOU CAN do all of these things during June and every other month of the year.
