Resolution

The following Resolution was passed by the Earl Horton Post 122 of the American Legion and the Auxiliary.

WHEREAS, Monroe McIntosh and wife, Lillian McIntosh, departed this life a short time ago; and, WHEREAS, both Monroe and Lillian had been faithful members of the Legion Post and Auxiliary for many years, continuing their interest even after they were unable to attend the meeting and always promptly providing for their membership; and WHEREAS, not only the Legion Post and Auxiliary but the entire County has suffered a great loss in two valued citizens.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved:

1. That condolence be extended to the family of Monroe and Lillian.
2. That others take Monroe and Lillian as examples and as incentives to more faithfully perform the duties and obligations that are always present.
3. That copy of this Resolution be sent to the family of Monroe and Lillian; a copy to The Yancey Journal; a copy to the North Carolina Department of the American Legion, and a copy spread upon the minutes of this Post.

Duly passed the 24th day of May, 1977.

Strawberries are ripe... and while everyone has their favorite recipes using this delicious fruit, a few more always come in handy for special occasions.

CHEESE STRAWBERRY TARTS
1 qt. strawberries
water
1/4 cup cornstarch
Dash salt
1/4 cup sugar
1 pkg. (3 oz.) cream cheese
2 T. milk
6 baked tart shells.

Wash and decap berries. Put half through sieve. Add enough water to the sieved berries to make 1 1/2 cups. Mix cornstarch, salt and sugar; stir in sieved berries. Cool until thickened, stirring constantly. Cool, mix cheese with milk. Spread in bottom of tart shells. Cover with whole berries, tips up. Top with cornstarch mixture. Chill until top is firm. Makes 6-4 inch tarts.

STRAWBERRY AMBROSIA
1 pt. strawberries
1 cup orange sections (free of seeds and membrane)
1 cup fresh, frozen or canned pineapple chunks
1 cup shredded fresh coconut or pkg. shredded or flaked coconut
Very fine granulated or confectioners' sugar.

Wash and hull strawberries. Arrange fruits and coconut in alternate layers in serving dish; sprinkling berries and oranges with sugar, if needed. Chill. Makes 6 servings.

LUSCIOUS STRAWBERRY SALAD
2 (3 oz) pkg. strawberry flavored gelatin
1 1/2 cups boiling water
1 1/2 (10 oz.) pkg. frozen strawberries
1 (8 1/2 oz) can crushed pineapple
1/2 cup chopped pecans
1 cup commercial sour cream
Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add strawberries and stir gently. Chill until slightly congealed. Add pineapple and chopped nuts. Pour 1/2 mixture into an oiled 9-inch square pan; chill slightly. Fold sour cream into remaining gelatin mixture and pour into pan of partially set gelatin. Chill until firmly set. Yields 12 servings.

4-H Members Represent Yancey

Peggy McQuade, Route 4, Burnsville, and Bill Fender, Route 3, Burnsville, have been chosen to represent Yancey County at the 4-H Regional Resource Development Conference at Fontana Village, June 6-10.

They will be among some 28 4-H members attending from 15 North Carolina Counties. More than 250 4-H'ers from watershed counties in the seven Tennessee Valley states are expected to attend.

In announcing the delegates, 4-H Youth Agent Johnny Hensley explained that these 4-H'ers were selected because of their 4-H achievement and potential leadership.

Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Fender of Route 3, Burnsville. Peggy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McQuade of Route 4, Burnsville.

This year's conference theme is "Our Resources--Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow." While at Fontana Village, the 4-H'ers will study the Tennessee Valley's atmosphere, soil, mineral, wildlife, forestry, water and human resources.

Basic objectives of the meeting are to stimulate the 4-H'ers awareness and appreciation of the resources of the region and to stress the need for conservation. Career opportunities in resource fields are an additional highlight of the conference.

NO OTHER DEALERS IN THE CAROLINAS OFFERS MORE FUEL EFFICIENT CARS AND TRUCKS THAN YOUR CAROLINA FORD DEALERS.*

If you're looking for better gas mileage, check the figures on this page. Pinto, traditionally America's best-selling subcompact, not only has good mileage ratings but also excellent performance. The larger 5-passenger Granada has good mileage ratings and it's compared in looks and ride to Mercedes-Benz. Ford pickups have the best MPG ratings for both Six and V-8, manual and automatic, and the unbeatable Courier pickup is tops in its class. Your Ford Dealer has what you're looking for.

More about mileage. Mileage figures are EPA estimates. Your actual mileage will vary depending on your vehicle's condition, optional equipment, and how and where you drive.
