We have certainly seen the folks arriving this week with plenty of guests, most of whom attended the July 4th covered dish dinner. As usual the community house was bulging at the seams. Plenty of good food too—as well as entertainment provided by Judy Unsworth and Julie Heckart.

Al and Evelyn White are visiting with Mrs. Dennis at her Mini-Haus.

The Burns and Busker families have arrived from Ft. Lauderdale to spend the summer.

The Harold Gronquists arrived to spend most of the summer with Harold's mother. The Jerry Ray family came over from Greensboro for the 4th weekend. The Buck Grahams drove up from Hendersonville to round out a full Gronquist household.

Maude Andre has arrived with granddaughter Patty from Coral Gables. Granddaughter Paulette has been here for a week awaiting their arrival.

The Berlin family is in and have as their guests, their nephew Paule Steele, also Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pyle of Mercer, Pa.

Mr. Robert Walters has arrived from Gibsonville and has his daughter, Mrs. Jocelyn Brockshire and his granddaughter, Patty as his guests.

The Alexanders who have recently returned from a leisurely 6 weeks trip in Europe, have their little granddaughters Heidi and Wendy with them.

Helen Underwood and Kathryn Walters arrived a little later than usual this year. They took a 9 weeks tour by freighter from New Orleans to Barcelona, Alexandria, Egypt, Cairo and Italy. They came to a halt in Cleveland, Ohio where they disembarked after cruising down the St. Lawrence waterway. Nice to have you with us again. It was quite a trip.

Dr. and Mrs. Secrest have been enjoying their cabin for a couple of weeks. They have had as houseguests Dr. and Mrs. Inley Granger of High Point College. Dr. Granger is Chairman of the Foreign Language Department.

Molly Secrest who spent the last year studying languages in Paris, France spent the July 4th weekend with her parents.

Mary Melton had her nephew and family in for the holiday weekend.

The Marcus Cornelious family are enjoying their lovely A-frame cabin overlooking the water.

Mrs. Schnupp is busy these days since daughter Linda Peacock and granddaughter Kelly arrived.

Betty Hogan is in with daughter Jan who I am told is recovering from chicken pox.

Willie Klemments is in with friend Clara Durham from Atlanta to spend the summer.

The Summer is really shaping up when we see Lee and Terry Schultz arrive. Just wish Ella and Mary Ann Batcheller could be with us.

Don't forget our Wednesday night Bingo games starting July 6th at 7:30 p.m. We'll see you there.
