Burnsville Facility Becomes Hospital

[Cont'd from page 1] care/Medicaid reimbursement for Extended Care beds to an inadequate level had made Extended Care Facilities a financial liability—even causing several in North Carolina to close down. Additionally, he could turn some of the semi-private rooms in Spruce Pine Hospital into private rooms which they needed, and this would release several acute care beds to Yancey County. The change would be beneficial financially to the Blue Ridge Hospital System, he stated, but it would be up to the hospital commission to approve the changes.

Yancey County Chamber of Commerce President Richard Miller, who will take a seat on the Board of the Blue Ridge Hospital System in September along with Steve Boone and Mark Bennett, flew to Raleigh that week to discuss the changes with hospital care authorities. In the meantime, Mr. Carlisle made a detailed outline of plans with a feasibility study to submit to the hospital planners and board of the Blue Ridge Hospital System.

Only last week, after much hard work and reorganizing, Mr. Carlisle was able to give a definite answer to the question of what the Burnsville facility will be offering. "Yancey County is getting a complete health care complex," he stated. "One wing, the one which we plan to open on October 1, will be a 24-bed hospital; the other wing will house the 26 extended care beds and will not open until a later date. In addition, the Emergency Room, lab and X-ray departments will open in conjunction with the hospital."

So the name change from Burnsville Extended Care Facility to Burnsville Health Care Center is more vitally significant than it might appear. What it means is that Yancey County will continue to have a hospital to serve the needs of its people. Truly a case for rejoicing.

Lutheran Fellowship

months thereafter. Successful treatment depends upon early detection and consequent treatment.

Left untreated, heart worms may damage your dog's vital organs. They can be fatal, so if you spot frequent coughing, a sluggishness, or labored breathing in your dog, run to your nearest Veterinarian.

Mosquito season is heartworm season to dogs. Thus, the health of your pooch may rest squarely in your hands.

No vaccine, as yet, is available to immunize against canine heart worms, but your Veterinarian does have preventive medicine in liquid or pill form that is administered daily during mosquito season and up to two

Sports News Yancey County Recreation Department

The Women's Softball Tournament came to an end last Sunday with a rain-shortened six-inning game. The Micaville Blue Bell team was all fired up with bases loaded when the downpour came, dampening their hopes. Henredon's hard-driving team emerged as champs by a score of 9-7.

The week-long tournament started Monday night with the eight regular League teams competing in double-elimination play. Following the championship game, trophies were awarded to the tournament winners, winners for the regular season, and individual players as follows:

Henredon won Regular Season Runner-Up; Yancey Theatre won Regular Season Champs; Micaville Blue Bell won Tournament Runner-Up; Henredon won Tournament Champs; Clearmont won a trophy for Team Sportsmanship; Nora Williams won a trophy for "Outstanding Player of the Tournament;" Lena Mae King won a trophy sponsored by Don's Li'l Smokey for "Outstanding Player Regular Season."

ALL STAR GAME
 The Women's Softball All-Star Game between East and West is set for Sunday, August 28, 2:30 p.m. at Burnsville field. The West team will be coached by Lawrence Bolick with Assistants Dwight Wilson, Freddy Penland and Steve Griffith. The East team is to be coached by Buster Deyton

Mount Mitchell Golf

BY BERTIE VANDELL
 Last Thursday started out foggy with the threat of rain. Only eight ladies took a chance on the weather, and soon after they started to golf it turned into a beautiful day. The ladies decided to make the event of the day Captain's Choice because everyone enjoyed the last one held last month. The Captain chose to call her team "The Swingers" and they swung right into first place. Winners were: Captain Rose Marie Altemus, Betty Lou Young, Marla Hoover, and Betty Bacon. I know you all had a good time. Missed being out there with you.

Last Tuesday, August 16, the luncheon was held at the home of Doris Edge to honor and present the Championship Trophy to Karen Dawson. She also received a nice putter from Pro William Deck. After a very delicious lunch, served on the patio, decorated so nicely in yellows and whites, Karen Dawson read her thank you and farewell letter. Karen is such a sweet gal, very sincere. The kind it takes to be a good champ...we will miss her.

Attending the luncheon were Harriet Weiss, Jean Ellis, Betty Lou Young, Nelle Hoover, Jewel McIntosh, Marla Hoover, Rose Marie Altemus, Mildred Roberts, Pat Carter and Bertie Van Dell. We all want to thank Doris and her dear helper Jean Ellis for a very delightful day. I am sure none of us shall ever forget those tender moments, and what it meant to Karen!

Don't forget August 25, our League Banquet which will be held at The Chalet. Friendship time starts at 6 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. followed by dinner and presentations and awards. See you there!
