Cattail Creek Report

BY MRS. NEVA RENALDO

It is my extreme pleasure to report that young Mark Linsmore who was injured in a fall at Twin Falls a few weeks ago is at home in Florida and well on the way to recovery. He is able to pursue his studies with a homebound teacher.

His family wishes me to extend their eternal thanks to all who were so helpful and kind during this trying period.

Lt. and Mrs. James Dolle and family of Lexington, Ky. have been visiting with Mr. Dolles family, the Don Dolles, and grandmother, Laura Dornbach.

Mrs. Walter Klements has had quite a stream of company recently--They include her daughter-in-law, Mrs. W.S. Klements of Coral Gables, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Shelton, The Gus Sheltons, Jr., and their daughter Vanessa, all of Hamlet, N.C., the Bruch Harrels of Atlanta, also the John Buidas of Chattanooga, Tennessee. Mrs. Buida is Mrs. Klements' granddaughter.

Richard Banks of Miami is here visiting with his aunt, Mrs. Maude Andre. He and his mother, Mrs. Blanche Banks will leave for Miami this week.

We are happy to have the Sven Karmarks back in our midst after spending most of the summer making their transition from Hialeah, Fla. to Winter Haven. Glad you could get back to enjoy this lovely weather with us.

The Don Dolles have taken off for a change of scenery for a couple of weeks. They plan to visit Knoxville, Mammoth Cave, Fort Knox and points west.

The Al Browns left for Miami this past week. Having observed a for sale sign on the property may I say: Having been part of our little community for some 20 years, things just won't be the same without them and Grandmother Ella Batcheller. We'll miss you.

I understand the Curry Andrews of Gainesville, Fla. have just become members of our community. We welcome you wholeheartedly.

The Tom Badens left this week for home, but are stopping off with daughter Helen who is a student at Furman University.

The Dave Cathcarts have as their guests this week the A.T. Walls of Jacksonville, Fla.

This will be the final column for this year since your correspondent is about to take off for Williamsburg and points east. Till next spring adieu to all you nice people and may we all meet again in these lovely mountains.
