

The Madison Messenger

MissNWatkins

VOL. XVIII.—NO. 37

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AT POSTOFFICE, MADISON, N. C.

MADISON, N. C., SEPTEMBER 8, 1932

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE: ONE YEAR $1.50 SIX MONTHS 75 CENTS

Every Thursday

The Drunken Driver As He Was Seen Eighteen Years Ago

A good deal has been said in the papers about Judge Michael Schenck's recent charge to a grand jury at Lenoir a few days ago. It was a most excellent charge, and he hit the nail square on the head when he said: "A drunken fool on any highway makes it a death trap for others." Then one report goes on and gives the Judge credit for an experience he had several years ago on a trip from Ruffin to Reidsville. This was not Judge Schenck's experience at all, but that of Charles L. Jones, now Mayodan's chief of police, but who was a resident of Reidsville at that time. Just how Mr. Jones' description of the event got mixed up with Judge Schenck's is not known but in order to "keep history straight," we give Mr. Jones' personal version of the experience, which is his own and not Judge Schenck's:

"I think the first car I saw that was operated by a fool or fools was in 1914 when there were only a few cars in Reidsville and not many in larger cities. One Saturday afternoon Dr. Sam B. Ellington and I were coming from Ruffin to Reidsville in a buggy drawn by a horse with plenty of life when a large touring car with six drunken men passed us at a lively speed. "About a mile further on we caught up with them parked by the side of the road. I judge they had stopped to take another drink. However, they soon passed again and after we had driven seven of the nine miles from Ruffin to Reidsville we came in sight of them but did not pass as they drove on leaving a gallon container on the side of the road. There were at this time five grade crossings on this stretch of road and when we came in sight of the third one or what was then known as Andrew Reid crossing where the American Tobacco Co. storage sheds now stand we could see their car on the track and one of the fellows coming down the track in an effort to flag an approaching south bound freight. As the train was on an up grade the engineer managed to stop before reaching the crossing.

"With the assistance of the train crew we got the wrecked car off enough to allow the train to pass. I asked one of the party who was driving the car at the time of the wreck and I remember very well that his reply was that they were all trying to drive.

"The trip was made so unpleasant for Dr. Ellington that I was sorry that I had asked him to ride with me instead of waiting for the train as he had intended doing; however, we reached our destination safely taken care of by Providence as the doctor declared.

"And now I return to the subject of drinking, I would like for someone to tell me where a drunken man or woman belongs. Some have advanced the opinion that they ought to go home and stay until they get sober. Is that a suitable place for a drunk with wife and children, mother, sisters, brothers, or even alone? I say not! And I certainly can't think of anything so dangerous on a highway as a person under steering wheel of a car with his tank full or half full of liquor, alcohol, homebrew or some other intoxicating beverage and with auto tank containing gas."

Football Practice

Coach Kuykendall tells us that the first work out of the football squad of Madison high school will take place Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when all candidates who want to "make the team" are expected to be on the campus. Some games in the near future are in sight, and it will be well for all the boys who expect to join the squad to be on hand next Monday afternoon.

Enlarging Bungalow

A force of hands is adding two rooms to the bungalow owned by J. O. Busick and occupied by Jess Tuttle.

Poling Rebuked By Woman Dry Leader

Washington, Sept. 4.—Mrs. Jesse W. Nicholson, president of the National Woman's Democratic Law Enforcement League, made public today a letter to Dr. Daniel A. Poling, chairman of the allied forces for prohibition, protesting against a request she said had been made for a contribution to help re-elect President Hoover.

"Your letter," Mrs. Nicholson wrote, "asking me, a constitutional Democrat, to assist the Allied Forces, of which you are chairman, in making a contribution in the campaign for the re-election of President Hoover and a dry Congress when the President is running on a dripping wet platform, seems to me an insult to intelligence, when you know better than anyone else the decided stand I took in 1928 against my own party for the self-same program now proposed by the Republican candidate."

Mrs. Nicholson expressed "regret that you, of all people, should throw your support to a wet Republican candidate now, when you fought so persistently in 1928 against a Democratic candidate whose position was identical with that of the candidate you are now supporting."

Mrs. Katie Mitchell

Mrs. Katie Mitchell died at her home near Mayodan Saturday morning about 12 o'clock. Heart trouble was the cause of her death, though she had been in declining health for quite a long while. She was 74 years of age. Mrs. Mitchell was a devout member of the Beaver Island Baptist Church, and loved by all who knew her best. She is survived by two children, Mrs. Carrie Martin of Mayodan, and Mrs. R. S. Vernon, of Bluefield, W. Va., six grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, besides two sisters, Mrs. Nanette Martin, of Mayodan, and Mrs. Frank Martin of Madison, and two brothers, Dock Kallam, of Mayodan and Tom Kallam, of Sandy Ridge. A short funeral service was held from the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and services concluded at the family cemetery. Revs. Shoemaker and Manuel being the pastors in charge. The pallbearers were John Martin, Will Joyce, Louis Martin, Grover Hall, Richard Manuel and Roy Alley.

Work On Road Began Thursday; 150 Men

The contractors began active operations of the Madison-Greensboro road link Thursday morning and now about 150 men are at work daily. This reduced the unemployed army in this section just that much. In the future, those desiring to work will be required to report to Red Cross headquarters every morning in order that the roll call may be carried out. The foreman will select laborers for that day from those who are present. If you are not present, you stand no chance of being employed for that day. The contract for the new Madison-Wentworth road will be let within the near future and several hundred more men will be employed when this is done.

Read The Messenger ads and buy it at home.

Madison H. School Has New Department

With the opening of the 1932 school term Madison high school will have added to her curriculum a course in Vocational Agriculture. W. W. McCulloch, who for the past five years has been teacher of agriculture in Sedge Garden school, Forsyth county, will have charge of the work in the local school. The agricultural department will offer instruction in agriculture to the farm boys enrolled in high school as a part of their regular high school course. The teacher of agriculture will also offer evening class instruction to the adult farmers of the community during the winter months and serve the farmers through group demonstrations and individual farm services where possible.

According to Mr. McCulloch, prospects are bright for building up a strong agricultural department in Madison school, as a large number of boys have already indicated a desire to enroll in the course with the opening of school and the school officials and residents of the community are showing great interest in the new department and have assumed a very cooperative attitude toward the work.

William M. Knight Passed Away Monday

William Marion Knight, 76, died at the home of his son, T. L. Knight, Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Knight preceded him about five years ago. For years Mr. Knight conducted a mercantile business at Rocky Springs, this county, and was probably one of the largest farmers in the county. Since the death of his wife he had made his home with his son at Stokesdale and retired from business. The funeral services were conducted from Eden Methodist Church, of which he had been a member for several years, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, and the interment was in the church cemetery. Mr. Knight leaves eight daughters, Mrs. O. E. Combs, Mrs. A. J. Gravette, Mrs. R. W. Gentry, Mrs. J. F. Powell, and Mrs. C. W. Angel, of Stokesdale; Mrs. P. M. Johnson, Mrs. O. F. Stafford, and Miss Pearl Knight, of Greensboro; five sons, W. H., J. S., T. L., R. G. and P. G. Knight, of the Stokesdale section; a brother, James Knight of Pine Hall.

Clay Fogleman Trial; Stokes County Venire

A special venire consisting of 36 men was summoned from Stokes county from which to select a jury for the trial of Clay Fogleman, which began at Wentworth yesterday morning. Fogleman stands charged with the murder of J. W. Carter, filling station operator, and Deputy Sheriff Robertson, the killings having occurred within a few days of each other. Jack Napier, Fogleman's alleged partner-in-crime, was shot and killed in Kentucky a few weeks ago while resisting arrest. Both of these murders were of the cold-blooded style, but the evidence against Fogleman is of the circumstantial variety, though that is very strong. A hard fight will be put up by the defense, and every inch of ground will be hotly contested.

Hail And Wind

During the thunder storm last Thursday, the hail and wind did considerable damage in the Ellisboro section. The scope covered was small, however. Tobacco was pretty badly cut up, while the orchards suffered more damage than anything else, many trees being twisted off.

Lost Fine Cow

Lee Tuttle had the misfortune of losing a fine cow Friday night. The cause of her death is not known.

Fred McNeill and W. H. Profit of Wilkes county will build trench silos for providing succulent feed for their dairy cows this winter.

HUGE REFINANCING PROGRAM WILL BE GIVEN IMMEDIATE ATTENTION BY THE TREASURY

Washington, Sept. 5.—A refinancing program involving $1,150,000,000 to meet maturing obligations, interest on the public debt and to provide funds for the Reconstruction corporation was announced today by Secretary Mills.

The treasury's second major financial operation of the current fiscal year provides for issuance of $750,000,000 of 3 1/4 per cent treasury notes maturing in five years and $400,000 in certificates of indebtedness bearing 1 1/4 per cent interest and maturing on September 15, 1933.

The treasury notes will be drafted September 15 and will mature on the same day in 1937. They will not be subject to call for redemption prior to that date. The certificates of indebtedness also will be dated September 15.

Interest on both issues will be payable semi-annually. Both notes and certificates will be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation except estate and inheritance taxes.

About $712,504,500 of treasury certificates of indebtedness mature on September 15, which the department heads decided to meet with the five-year note issue in view of the administration's opposition to further long term bond issues. In addition, Secretary Mills explained that about $50,000,000 in interest payments on the public debt becomes due and payable on September 15.

The Reconstruction corporation and general operating expenses of the government also are drawing heavily on the treasury which already is facing a deficit of about $400,000,000 despite increased taxes. However, the third quarterly income tax payments are due on September 15, and are expected to reduce the deficit.

The five-year note issue bears the longest maturity of any federal government security offered since the bond issue in September 1931, and brings the gross public debt to $20,504,700,000.

The first major financial operation this fiscal year was on August 1st, when a $365,000,000 issue of four-year notes was oversubscribed more than 10 times in one day. No difficulty is expected in disposing of the new issues, which can be reduced to liquidity under the recently enacted Glass-Steagall act permitting the federal reserve banks to rediscount government securities.

STONEVILLE

Miss Eleanor Grogan returned to Morganton Friday to resume her school work.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Robertson were recent visitors to Winston-Salem.

J. P. and Wilbur Carter spent the week end in Roanoke.

Miss Florence King left Friday for her school at Siler City.

Mrs. Walter Stone entertained her bridge club Thursday afternoon. After four lively progressions Miss Estelle Taylor was found to hold high score and was awarded a lovely card table cover. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Houston Taylor in serving delicious homemade ice cream and cake.

Miss Elizabeth Poole spent last week in Ridgeway.

Mrs. B. K. Thomas and children of Vinton, Va., returned home Sunday, after spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. T. J. Glenn.

We regret to note that Mrs. E. B. King sustained injury recently when she fell down a stairway.

Miss Fan Scales has returned from a visit to Miss Shelton in Lynchburg.

Mrs. J. W. Grogan of Spray spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Vernon.

Mrs. Percy Neal of High Point is on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fagg.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Heflin of Durham were visitors in town last week.

Miss Jessie Vernon of Spray visited Mrs. J. B. Vernon Saturday.

Miss Aileen Lewis spent the week end in Boone Mill, Va.

Edward Franklin is on a visit to Washington City.

Mrs. Alice Joyce and Miss Ada Joyce are on a visit to Scotland Neck.

Mrs. Robert Meade and little daughter have returned home, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Lewis.

Mrs. R. L. Stone and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Stone visited Greensboro Friday.

Taze DeShazo of Roanoke is on a visit here.

Miss Margaret Wray of Boone Mill, Va., is visiting Miss Aileen Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Ivie and son, Lawson, Mr. Mattie Gravelly and T. L. Smith of Leaksville were in town Sunday.

Mrs. B. H. Wall is on a visit here.

Miss Lula Heflin and Dorothy Jones of Durham were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Heflin Sunday.

Dr. L. L. Anderson and Miss Estelle Taylor visited Ramsour Sunday.

Messdames John Wilkins and Kettie Smith have returned from a visit to Chimney Rock.

Miss Gertrude King returned to school at Mt. Ulla Friday.

Miss Lelia Nolen is visiting in Richmond.

SYLVANIA

Mr. and Mrs. Cole of Baltimore, Md., visited Miss Bessie Wood last week.

Harold Leach of High Point who has been spending several months with his cousin, Roger Friddle, returned home Sunday. Curtis Southard left for New York City Saturday.

Miss Josephine McClarham and Mrs. Bill McClarham of Winston-Salem and Miss Betty Babcock and Miss Sallie Baker of Oxford were visitors of Miss Ruby Bailey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Comer of Reidsville visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Friddle Sunday.

Mrs. E. O. Parrish visited her mother, Mrs. J. P. James Tuesday.

Mrs. Alice Strickland of Reidsville visited Miss Dora Farrar Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lemons of Mayodan spent Sunday with Mrs. D. F. Friddle.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Friddle and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Comer visited in High Point Sunday afternoon.

Elder Wesley Willard of High Point spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Friddle.

Mrs. Jettie Joyce visited relatives in this vicinity Sunday.

R. W. Pegram and family attended the Pegram reunion at Battleground Sunday.

Mrs. John Bailey is spending several days with Mrs. T. B. Bailey.

Mr. Byrd of Greensboro spent Wednesday night with Dewey Friddle. Mr. Friddle entertained a few of his friends with a beef roast at his tobacco barn.

Orders Rolling In

In order to take care of the increasing orders, the Gem-Dandy Garter company has put on a night force. Not only that, but a new sewing room has been added, composed of twelve extra machines. This would indicate, in no uncertain way, that the goods of this concern are becoming very popular, and deservedly so, and that business conditions throughout the country are improving. The Mayo Mills have also put on a night force and are kept busy filling orders. Low water is bothering this latter firm some, but, aided by steam, both day and night forces are kept busy.

The bank at Denton was robbed Tuesday. Two arrests have already been made, with others to follow.

From a visit to Chimney Rock. Miss Gertrude King returned to school at Mt. Ulla Friday.

Miss Lelia Nolen is visiting in Richmond.

MAYODAN

Mrs. Kit Smith of Stoneville is visiting in town.

Misses Annie Smith and Annie Richardson spent a few days in Asheville.

Mrs. Brewer Whitten of Fieldale visited friends Tuesday.

Miss Lucy Martin of Hickory spent the week end with Mrs. S. F. Martin.

Mrs. O. O. Tesh and son of Winston-Salem are spending the week with Mrs. T. J. Clark.

Misses Minnie Lee and Hallie Yates, Harry Martin and Howard Amos spent a few days in Washington City.

Miss Augusta Raymer of Wake Forest and Dennis Britt of Portsmouth, Va., visited Miss Annie Martin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dalton and Ray Dalton of Winston-Salem spent the week end in town.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Heath of Martinsville spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. N. W. Hatch has returned to Raleigh after spending several days with relatives.

Mrs. W. H. Price, Jr., spent a few days in Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Warner of Tucuman, New Mexico, visited Mrs. K. V. Reid Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Ashe and daughter, Bonnie Brown, spent the week end in Mocksville.

Misses Dora Jones, Frances Gann and Erma Martin spent Saturday in Greensboro.

The Parent-Teacher association met in the school auditorium Monday evening with a large number present. Plans were discussed for the new school year's work. The meeting opened with the singing of "America." Reports were heard from the secretary and treasurer. The chairman of committees were appointed as follows: Ways and means, Mrs. W. H. Bolin; program, Miss Irene Money; membership, Miss Gladys Vernon; social, Mrs. T. C. Black; publicity, Mrs. K. V. Reid, and grade mother, Mrs. O. M. Whitebeck. Dues were reduced to 25 cents. Plans were discussed for a mother and daughter banquet to be held the last of October and a ball game with the Madison Methodist Society soon. Mr. Duncan presented a summary of last year's work in becoming an accredited State high school and the commencement of the first graduating class of the school. The next meeting will be held the first Monday in October.

Alfred Ellington Won Second Prize

Alfred Ellington returned Tuesday from Nashville, Tenn., where he attended the Southern Archery Tournament. His friends will be pleased to learn that he captured second prize, a beautiful loving cup, which he is now displaying with a great deal of pride. When the fact is taken into consideration that he competed with the best archers of ten Southern States, no one can blame him for being proud of his accomplishment. It will be remembered that he taught archery at the Lake Lure camp for girls this summer. The Nashville Tennesseean says that the "men's" championship event was easily the outstanding event Sunday. Coffin had a 201 count against 200 for Ellington at close of 100-yard shoot. Both registered 210 points in the 80-yard event. Then in the 60-yard shoot after lunch, the St. Louis marksman piled up 176 points while the Tar Heel dropped to 134."

Brushy Mountain Club Meeting

(Mrs. R. G. Reid, reporter) The Brushy Mountain club met with Mrs. Joe Joyce September 2nd.

We opened the meeting with songs with guitar accompaniment. Scripture read by Mrs. Joe Joyce was Matthew, 6th chapter. Collect by club. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Roll call. Talk by Miss Holmes.

Demonstration was "Dressing Table of Orange Crates," covered with glazed chintz and suggestions for improving a girl's room with very little expense.

The club will meet next with Mrs. J. F. Grogan.

Mt. Carmel Club Meeting

(Mrs. George Ellington, reporter) On the afternoon of Friday, August 26th, the ladies of the Mt. Carmel Demonstration club met at the lovely home of Mrs. J. R. Stone, with her daughters, Misses Annie and Edna, as joint hostesses.

The president, Mrs. H. L. Chrismon, called the meeting to order at the usual hour, all singing, "America," followed by Scripture lesson read by Mrs. J. J. Jarrett, a portion of the third chapter of St. John. All repeated the Lord's Prayer in unison. Roll was called and each member answered with "The Nicest Thing a neighbor ever did for me." The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary.

At this time little seven-year-old Roxie King read "Mr. Flynn um's Turnip," followed by a reading by Mrs. T. B. Strader in her most pleasing manner, "Depression Dents." Miss Mamie Strader rendered the "Ken

Colored Team Won

The strong Leaksville colored team came up Monday afternoon and hooked up with the Freetown Firehouses. It was a hard fought battle, but the local team won by the score of 8 to 2. Neal Cardwell hit one out of the park with three on, while Maxie Martin followed with a homer with one on. This was probably the last game of the season by the local team.

Successful Revival Ends At Pine Hall

Rev. E. E. Williamson returned Friday from Pine Hall, where he assisted Pastor Hartsell in a series of meetings at Pine Hall Methodist Church. He tells us that large congregations attended each service. There were fifteen professions.

Beautifulizing Cemetery

A force of hands has been busily engaged for the past several days in removing the rubbish from the cemetery, opposite the Gen-Dandy Garter company factory. It was badly needed, for the weeds, briars, vines, etc., had about taken possession of this "holy acre."

Thirty-two farmers in Polk county are now shipping cream and are planting a good acreage to soybeans and cowpeas so that plenty of hay will be available for their winter cattle.

HOME DEMONSTRATION NEWS

Marjorie Holmes, Home Demonstration Agent

Program For Next Week

September 12th: The Berry club will have their regular monthly meeting. "Home Made Furniture and Plans for Achievement Day," will be discussion for the afternoon.

September 13th: The Bethany club will meet with Mrs. J. T. Stewart. Plans for Achievement Day will be taken up.

September 14th: The Herman-Bethlehem club will have their regular monthly meeting. The demonstration will be "Help With Home Management Year Books."

September 15: The ladies of the Apple-Clarke club will meet with Mrs. L. E. Strader at 10 o'clock and bring lunch with them for an all day meeting in making lamp shades. Parchment, pleated and chintz shades will be made.

2:00 P. M.—The Smyrna club will meet with Mrs. G. W. McCollum. The time for this meeting has been changed from Friday until Thursday.

September 16th: The McKinney club will meet, and since several of the ladies have chairs that need reupholstering, we will have a demonstration on caning of chairs. Mrs. Lee Carroll from the Berry club will give the demonstration. The Home Agent will give a demonstration on "Home Made Dressing Table."

Sharon-Glady Club Meeting (Miss Jessie Sue Butler, reporter)

The women of the Sharon-Glady community met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Moore August 30th, for the purpose of organizing a club. The officers are as follows:

President, Miss Edna Butler. Vice-President, Mrs. J. W. Moore. Secretary, Mrs. Joyner Lemons. Assistant Secretary—Miss Leona Lemons. Reporter, Miss Jessie Sue Butler.

The club shall be called the "Sharon-Glady Club." We have twenty-five charter members. Miss Holmes discussed the purpose of the club while Mrs. Wetmore, from the Midway-Monroeton club, told us something about what it meant to be a club member.

After the business session, Mrs. Moore served iced tea and sandwiches.

We adjourned to meet with Mrs. Walter Butler October 3.

It seems that yo-yo bed spreads are all the go. We were invited into the bed room to view the new one just finished. While in this room, an old dresser, probably one hundred years old, was admired very much by some and the idea of refinishing was discussed.

At last good-byes were spoken and Mrs. Stone and her daughters were declared most charming hostesses. We will meet with Mrs. J. R. King in September.

The new bright belt tobacco report opened Tuesday and the reports appearing in yesterday morning's papers are most encouraging. These reports indicate that, compared with the prices of one year ago, they are double, and in some instances triple. This is the best news The Messenger has to offer today, and we feel sure that a large majority of our readers will hail it with delight. It is said that the bidding is spirited and that there is really some competition among buyers for the first time in many years. The recent dry weather has curtailed an already short crop, which goes to show that when the buyers really want the weed they are willing to pay for it, and this should be a lesson to the tobacco growers—more money in under-production than in over-production.

Tobacco Is Steadily Climbing Down East

After the business session, Mrs. Moore served iced tea and sandwiches.

We adjourned to meet with Mrs. Walter Butler October 3.

It seems that yo-yo bed spreads are all the go. We were invited into the bed room to view the new one just finished. While in this room, an old dresser, probably one hundred years old, was admired very much by some and the idea of refinishing was discussed.

At last good-byes were spoken and Mrs. Stone and her daughters were declared most charming hostesses. We will meet with Mrs. J. R. King in September.

The new bright belt tobacco report opened Tuesday and the reports appearing in yesterday morning's papers are most encouraging. These reports indicate that, compared with the prices of one year ago, they are double, and in some instances triple. This is the best news The Messenger has to offer today, and we feel sure that a large majority of our readers will hail it with delight. It is said that the bidding is spirited and that there is really some competition among buyers for the first time in many years. The recent dry weather has curtailed an already short crop, which goes to show that when the buyers really want the weed they are willing to pay for it, and this should be a lesson to the tobacco growers—more money in under-production than in over-production.

Tobacco Is Steadily Climbing Down East

After the business session, Mrs. Moore served iced tea and sandwiches.

We adjourned to meet with Mrs. Walter Butler October 3.

It seems that yo-yo bed spreads are all the go. We were invited into the bed room to view the new one just finished. While in this room, an old dresser, probably one hundred years old, was admired very much by some and the idea of refinishing was discussed.

At last good-byes were spoken and Mrs. Stone and her daughters were declared most charming hostesses. We will meet with Mrs. J. R. King in September.

The new bright belt tobacco report opened Tuesday and the reports appearing in yesterday morning's papers are most encouraging. These reports indicate that, compared with the prices of one year ago, they are double, and in some instances triple. This is the best news The Messenger has to offer today, and we feel sure that a large majority of our readers will hail it with delight. It is said that the bidding is spirited and that there is really some competition among buyers for the first time in many years. The recent dry weather has curtailed an already short crop, which goes to show that when the buyers really want the weed they are willing to pay for it, and this should be a lesson to the tobacco growers—more money in under-production than in over-production.

Tobacco Is Steadily Climbing Down East

After the business session, Mrs. Moore served iced tea and sandwiches.

We adjourned to meet with Mrs. Walter Butler October 3.

It seems that yo-yo bed spreads are all the go. We were invited into the bed room to view the new one just finished. While in this room, an old dresser, probably one hundred years old, was admired very much by some and the idea of refinishing was discussed.

At last good-byes were spoken and Mrs. Stone and her daughters were declared most charming hostesses. We will meet with Mrs. J. R. King in September.

The new bright belt tobacco report opened Tuesday and the reports appearing in yesterday morning's papers are most encouraging. These reports indicate that, compared with the prices of one year ago, they are double, and in some instances triple. This is the best news The Messenger has to offer today, and we feel sure that a large majority of our readers will hail it with delight. It is said that the bidding is spirited and that there is really some competition among buyers for the first time in many years. The recent dry weather has curtailed an already short crop, which goes to show that when the buyers really want the weed they are willing to pay for it, and this should be a lesson to the tobacco growers—more money in under-production than in over-production.

Tobacco Is Steadily Climbing Down East

After the business session, Mrs. Moore served iced tea and sandwiches.

We adjourned to meet with Mrs. Walter Butler October 3.

It seems that yo-yo bed spreads are all the go. We were invited into the bed room to view the new one just finished. While in this room, an old dresser, probably one hundred years old, was admired very much by some and the idea of refinishing was discussed.

At last good-byes were spoken and Mrs. Stone and her daughters were declared most charming hostesses. We will meet with Mrs. J. R. King in September.

The new bright belt tobacco report opened Tuesday and the reports appearing in yesterday morning's papers are most encouraging. These reports indicate that, compared with the prices of one year ago, they are double, and in some instances triple. This is the best news The Messenger has to offer today, and we feel sure that a large majority of our readers will hail it with delight. It is said that the bidding is spirited and that there is really some competition among buyers for the first time in many years. The recent dry weather has curtailed an already short crop, which goes to show that when the buyers really want the weed they are willing to pay for it, and this should be a lesson to the tobacco growers—more money in under-production than in over-production.

Tobacco Is Steadily Climbing Down East

After the business session, Mrs. Moore served iced tea and sandwiches.

We adjourned to meet with Mrs. Walter Butler October 3.

It seems that yo-yo bed spreads are all the go. We were invited into the bed room to view the new one just finished. While in this room, an old dresser, probably one hundred years old, was admired very much by some and the idea of refinishing was discussed.

At last good-byes were spoken and Mrs. Stone and her daughters were declared most charming hostesses. We will meet with Mrs. J. R. King in September.