Orders Increase As Public Takes Heart

(By The Associated Press)

American workmen marched back to their jobs by the hundreds Tuesday—and many of them read notices at the door that wages were up 10 per cent. Encouraged by orders piling up and by price advances for their products, many employers decided to share the profits with their employees.

One company, Planters Nut and Chocolate, of Suffolk, Va., announced pay envelopes would be padded by 20 per cent effective Wednesday.

There were several dozen other firms that added 5 or 10 per cent to wages, or else planned doing so as they called back hundreds of employees dropped as long as two years ago, reinstated night shifts, or reopened long closed departments.

Steel mills, barrel factories, automobile plants, rubber companies, clothing manufacturers—all of them were among the first that greeted pickups with screaming whistles that called men back to work.

Among the concerns that boosted wages: Supreme Shirt company, of Philadelphia, 10 per cent; Armstrong Rubber Company, 10 per cent.

Monday, E. L. Cord announced a 5 per cent increase for his companies and the Norfolk Tire and Rubber company a bonus of 5 per cent on weekly wages.

Many of the employers referred in announcing pay roll increases to President Roosevelt's admonitions in that respect and to the $3,000,000,000 public construction plan to revive business as completed by his advisors.

Here are some of the firms adding employes:

Commerce, Ga., National Manufacturing company called back several hundred and began operating its mills at night; two barrel stave factories at Barbourville, Ky., added night shifts; the Briggs and Stratton corporation increased operations from three to five days a week; the magazine "Ceramic Industry," of Chicago, estimated 10,000 men went back to work in glass, porcelain enamel, pottery, and allied industries since April 1.

The A. C. Spark Plug company, of Detroit, added 200 men to help catch up with orders; the Washington Mill at Lawrence, Mass., of the American Woolen company, reopened after being idle a year; tobacco companies at Richmond, Va., announced they had recalled 150 men, and small wood mills at Tonahawk and Muscoda, Wis., opened after being long closed.

From across the sea come reports that England's unemployment decreased 80,000 persons in April. Building, tailoring, and road building were some of the industries accelerated.

Increased operations in the steel industry—considered one of the most reliable of business barometers—provided good cheer in a dozen industrial sections of America. Automobile manufacturers were ordering steel, and a publication of the industry predicted "a buying panic" was possible.

A survey tonight showed the following business concerns have increased wages as suggested by President Roosevelt in his recent address emphasizing the advances in commodity prices:

Chicago—Cord corporation and subsidiaries, 5 per cent, affecting about 10,000 persons.

Rubber company, 12 1-2 per cent, resulting from increased working hours.

Uniontown, Pa.—Berkowitz Shirt company, 5 per cent.

Pittsburg, Pa.—George E. Rogers and company, flour and feed brokers, 10 per cent.

Suffolk, Va.—Planters Nut and Chocolate company, 20 per cent.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Supreme Shirt company, 10 per cent.

New Haven, Conn.—Armstrong Rubber company, 10 per cent.

Greenwood, S. C.—Twenty cotton mills at Greenwood and nearby, 10 per cent.

Albany, N. Y.—Artistic Shirt company, 10 per cent.

Wilmington, Del.—Standard Kid company, 7 per cent.

New York—Columbian Peanut company 10 to 20 per cent.

Spartanburg, S. C.—Pacolet mills and Pacific mills, 15 and 10 per cent, respectively.

New York—J. S. Bache and company, brokerage firm, 10 per cent.

Norwalk, Conn.—Norwalk Tire and Rubber company, 5 per cent bonus of weekly wages.

WIRE AND NAILS CAUSE HEAVY CATTLE LOSS

Pieces of baling wire, metal tags, nails and other sharp or pointed objects cause heavy losses to cattle owners in North Carolina each season because proper precautions are not taken about the feeding quarters.

"These foreign bodies in feeds are not of as great economic importance as some of the infectious diseases but they are an important source of loss to cattle owners," says Dr. C. D. Grinnells, dairy investigator at State College. "The cow is not to blame because she is a fast eater. She chews her food only slightly at first, rolls it into an oval shape mass and swallows it. Thus any foreign bodies included in the feed are swallowed without discomfort. However, when the mass of food is broken up in the stomach, trouble begins. Many of the foreign bodies swallowed cause no trouble but those having the ability to penetrate the walls of the stomach do cause considerable damage."

Pointed objects such as pieces of baling wire or nails penetrate the walls of the second stomach and puncture other organs such as the covering of the heart. One of the first indications of foreign bodies in the feed is, of course, a digestive disturbance, Grinnells says. Bloat is often noticed. The animal shows signs of pain and the back is humped or the shoulders winged to relieve the pressure.

Little can be done in the way of treatment. Usually it is best to kill the animals for food if proper inspection of the carcass can be secured.

Grinnells recommends prevention as the best control. Dairymen should not have metal brooms about the place; neither should they use an axe to cut the baling wire, or permit small nails to be scattered about the feeding places.

But for this hectic inning it was a splendid game.

HER DAY!

Radical Body Asks Recall Of Daniels

Washington, May 7.—An appeal to Clarence Darrow to lend his legal eloquence in behalf of farmers who recently mobbed an Iowa judge today issued from the closing session of the 1933 "continental congress for economic reconstruction."

While the congress was concluding a two-day convective, "leaders of the socialist party, instrumental in calling the session, initiated a movement aimed toward a possible coalition with the communist organization of the United States on certain specific issues." Also it adopted a new "declaration of independence" calling for a rebuilding of the economic structure upon radically altered lines.

The foreign relations committee, in a report approved by the Congress, urged recognition of Russia, the recall of Joseph Daniels as ambassador to Mexico, an end to American intervention in Haiti, withdrawal of recognition of the Machado government in Cuba, abolition of tariffs, revision of war debts and stabilization of currencies "in the interest of the farmers and workers instead of bond holders and money lenders."

Latham Is Willing For People To Vote

Raleigh, May 7.—R. H. Latham, of Winston-Salem, chairman of the legislative committee of the North Carolina Education association, in a statement issued here tonight, said school people of the state were willing that the question of supplements be submitted to voters.

"While we do not believe it is necessary to put the people of North Carolina to the expense of holding popular elections on supplements, we are perfectly willing to take this question back to the folks if the legislature deems this wise and necessary," he said.

The state-supported eight-months school machinery bill as passed by the senate would require elections, but a proposal is before the house to remove this restriction.

"Principles" that should be embraced in a school machinery measure were outlined by Latham as follows:

1. The $16,000,000 yearly school fund should be so administered that there will be a minimum of overhead expense.

2. Teachers should be required to be "masters of the field in which they teach."

3. The machinery bill should fix the teachers' load for allocation of state funds.

4. Teachers of the same training, experience and skill and doing the same work should be guaranteed of receiving the same pay out of state funds in every part of the state.

5. Transportation of students should be made a local function.

'Out Again, In Again'

Trouble broke thick and fast for Edgar Stovall Saturday morning. He had just returned the night before from serving a term for violating the prohibition law. Saturday morning he was arrested for operating a car intoxicated. Later he assaulted one of the State patrolmen, and still later was charged with attempting to bribe Chief Martin. He was given hearings on the first two charges and placed under bonds of $250.00 in each case. In the bribery charge he was not ready for trial and his bond was placed at $500.00. This case will probably be disposed of tomorrow, Friday, afternoon. In the meantime, he failed to secure bondsmen and was sent on to jail.

Garden Notes

(H. R. Niswonger, Extension Horticulturist)

Keep the garden busy by growing two or more crops on the same land. Watch every chance to put something as other crops mature. Try the following vegetable crops which sometimes are not found in the home garden. Parsnips, salsify, broccoli, endive, Chinese cabbage, Kohlrabi and Red cabbage. The seed of parsnips and salsify should be sown thickly and covered carefully followed by light tamping of soil. Thin plants to four inches in the row. Salsify is used in stews and soups and has the flavor of oysters. Endive is a salad crop. The leaves can be blanched by tying tops together. Broccoli and Kohlrabi require cultural treatments same as cabbage. The green flower heads of the former and the swollen turnip like stems of the latter are edible. Chinese cabbage is another salad crop and thrives best in rich soil and requiring the cooler portion of the growing season. Red cabbage is just another cabbage having a dark red color and a sweet flavor.

Fertilization of Special Crops
The growth of leaf or salad crops, also snap beans is improved by scattering along the row nitrate of soda or sulphate of ammonia at the rate of 1 pound or five quarts per 100 feet of plant row.

Tomatoes—Thoroughly mix with the soil of a 100 foot plant row 8 pounds of a 7-5-5 fertilizer to which has been added 4 pounds of 16 per cent acid phosphate. This will fertilize 50 tomato plants set 2 feet apart in the row.

Sweet Potato—Use a 10-4-8 fertilizer at the rate of 5 pounds per 100 feet of row. Don't use stable manure or plant on rich ground when growing sweet potatoes.

Melons—Mix thoroughly with the soil in each hill 10 pounds of manure and 2 pounds of 7-5-5 fertilizer.
