

Mrs. Anderson Honored With Shower

Hayesville — Mrs. Cline McClure, Mrs. Howard McClure and Mrs. Harold McClure were co-hostesses at the home of Mrs. Cline McClure for a household shower honoring Mrs. Jerry Anderson Thursday night.

A color scheme of yellow, white and green was used in all decorations and refreshments. The gift table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an umbrella in yellow and white. The serving table was overlaid with a white lace cloth over yellow linen and centered with an arrangement of jonquils and tall green candles were used. At the close of the evening refreshments of cake, coffee and hot chocolate were served to approximately 28.

Heart Fund Campaign Has Been Extended

Hayesville — The Heart Fund campaign has been extended through this week. Due to the bad weather our volunteer workers have not been able to contact every home, and everyone is urged to mail their contributions this week to Mrs. Dollie Crisp, Route 4, Hayesville, if a volunteer worker is not able to reach your home. Your gifts to the memorial fund may be made at any time during the year, and this means that you will be able to contribute to the memory of a loved one at any time and be assured of a living memorial. To date, workers have collected $305.20. A full and final report will be made in next week's paper.

Mrs. Gene Parker Honored With Shower

Hayesville — Mrs. Kenneth Matheson and Mrs. David Burch were co-hostesses at a shower Saturday evening, honoring Mrs. Gene Parker the former Miss Jessie May Dalley a recent bride.

After a game session, refreshments of cake and punch were served to the twenty-three guests attending.

Church News

Mrs. Arthur Rucker of Copperhill, Tenn. taught the mission book "Glimpses of Glory" in Friendship Baptist Church Friday evening March 1.

The WMU executive board of West Liberty Baptist Association met in Friendship Church February 27 with a good attendance. They made plans for their annual meeting to be held April 23 in Mt. Carmel Church.

Visiting speakers will be Miss Laura Frances Snow, missionary to Chile and Miss Wills Deau Freeman, State G. A. Director.

Children Attend Story Hour

Andrews — Twenty seven children, preschool and first graders, attended Story Hour on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. at the Andrews Carnegie Library. Many helpful mothers were also on hand to assist Mrs. R. A. Dewar and Mrs. Marion Ennis who are in charge.

Story Hour will be held again on March 14 and every other Wednesday following, beginning promptly at 2:30 p.m. Any mother wishing information concerning this program contact Mrs. Ennis or Mrs. Dewar.

Engagement Announced

Mrs. Gladys Crisp announces the engagement of her daughter, Janice, to Mr. James Howard McCombs, son of Mrs. Frank Ferguson and the late James A. McCombs.

The bride elect is a graduate of Murphy High School and is presently employed with the U. S. Forest Service. Mr. McCombs is a graduate of Murphy High School, Western Carolina College and is employed with Murphy City School System. An April wedding is planned.

Mrs. Ledford Honored At Household Shower

Hayesville — Mrs. Jackie Ledford was honored with a household shower at the home of Mrs. Guy Ledford, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Todd Phillips and Mrs. Edgar

Moore were co-hostess for the occasion. A yellow and white scheme was used. The table was overlaid with a white crocheted lace table cloth, centered with jonquils and tall white candles were used. Refreshments of cup cakes, cakes and coffee were served to the seventy-five guests attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Ledford's home was destroyed by fire. There was a short in the electric stove and when the little daughter touched the stove her hand stuck to the stove. Mrs. Ledford was unable to pull her loose, since she stuck to the child, Mr. Ledford jerked his wife and daughter loose and his hands were burned. The family went immediately for the doctor and after an electrician. When they reached their home the entire house was aflame. None of the contents were saved. Mr. and Mrs. Ledford are now residing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fraley that they have rented for the present time.
