Strong Tickets

Both Democrats and Republicans in Cherokee County are patting themselves on the back over the tickets they will present to the voters of this county in November. The Republicans started Saturday May 5, right after their county convention. Cherokee County GOP Chairman J. Doyle Burch told his group that when cornbread is passed to you at the dinner table, take some and eat it whether you like cornbread or not. In other words, according to Burch, for the Republicans to win in November they must vote the party ticket. Burch thus called for party unity while praising the GOP ticket.

The Democrats followed Saturday, May 12, nominating a candidate for every county office. In the words of several Democrat party leaders, their ticket is by far the strongest presented in the past decade. Enthusiasm ran high as the Democrats practically filled the Cherokee County Courtroom the day of their convention. Precinct delegates from throughout the county seemed well pleased with the results of the convention. The Democrats adjourned without naming a party chairman.

Democrat candidates are Donald Anderson for sheriff, James C. Howse (incumbent) for clerk of court, Paul Sudderth for registrar of deeds; Herman Edwards (incumbent) for judge of recorders court; Dr. George Sizemore, coroner; Mrs. Mary (Ed) Brumby, for legislature; C. C. Hemphill for board of education and for county commissioners; W. T. Moore, district one; J. H. Duncan, district two; and the Rev. W. D. Graham, district three.

Republican candidates are Claude Anderson, sheriff; Kellis Radford, clerk of court; Ed Graves, registrar of deeds; Edwin Hyde, Judge of Recorders Court; and J. C. Townson, coroner. Candidates for the County board of commissioners are Carlyle G. Matheson, Dr. W. A. Hoover and Lester Cole.

The Cherokee County Commissioners voted in special session last Thursday, June 7, to set the county-wide real and personal tax levy for 1962 at $1.60. The rate represents a reduction of 12 cents from the 1961 rate of $1.72 per $100 evaluation.

On a motion by W. T. Moore seconded by W. S. Dickey, the Board of Commissioners unanimously voted the 12 cent reduction.

The board had met earlier in the week on Monday, June 5, in regular session to set the rate, but adjourned before a decision could be reached.

The budget for the 1962 tax year as presented to the commissioners by Cherokee County accountant, Mrs. Kathryn Hunsucker was based on a tax rate of $1.62. The commissioners further reduced the rate to the $1.60 level. The reason for this additional two (2) cent reduction was not given.

Increased evaluations throughout the county totaling almost $1 million resulted in the rate reduction.

Beginning Monday, June 11 and ending Saturday, June 16, 176,000 extra votes will be given on each and every $20 worth of both new and old subscriptions turned in. This is the last of the three biggest extra vote offers that will be made for $20 "Clubs" of subscriptions, and the candidate who is ahead at the end of this vote offer will more than likely have a better side of the vote question at the end of the campaign.

Saturday night ends the biggest extra vote offer to be made for $20 "Clubs" of subscriptions and the biggest and best offer of the campaign is narrowing down to a matter of only a few hours. Soon -- and almost before you know it -- this big extra vote offer will be over. They go way down. By all means there is no time to be lost -- every single moment is of vital importance and should be the means of pushing you that much further to success.

BIG SUBSCRIPTIONS COUNT MOST

Big subscriptions count up the fastest. Five 5-year subscriptions turned in by Saturday night earn a total of 1,150,000 votes. Twelve of these 5 year subscriptions could pile up 2,700,000 votes for any candidate. Votes pile up

Sense Of Deep Regret

It was with a sense of deep regret that we learned Tuesday of the death of Andrews of the Rev. J. Alton Morris. While it was known that he had a heart ailment, his death nevertheless came as a shock.

Folks of our generation remember Mr. Morris as principal and coach at Winterville, Ga., who brought his basketball teams here on a week-end swap-out arrangement back in the early 1930's. The arrangement worked out between Mr. Morris and his great and good friend, Emmett D. Weeks, was one of the big events of the year back then.

More recently, Mr. Morris is remembered as the dedicated, gentle pastor at Murphy who preached here on many occasions.

In his passing, Baptists of North Carolina have lost an able leader; his family a devoted husband and father, and many local persons a close personal friend.

Cherokee County Voters Are Congratulated

Charles F. Carroll, state superintendent of Public Instruction, informed the school superintendents in Cherokee County last week that he "Genuinely appreciated the news that Cherokee County citizens voted almost four to one Saturday, May 26, for school building bonds in the amount of $500,000. This news together with comparable news about the passage of bond issues in Wilkes and New Hanover Counties, certainly goes far in erasing some of the disappointments that we have experienced in recent months with similar elections, Mr. Carroll, added.

Mr. Carroll went on to say that he is confident that the passage of the bond issue will rebound to the benefit of children in attendance upon schools in Murphy, Andrews, and Cherokee County systems. "I am glad that you were successful also because the action of your citizens represents an expression of confidence in the superintendents of the three systems, the Boards of Education, and other educational and official colleagues. Above all, passage of this bond issue reflects credit upon all the citizens of Cherokee County," he said.
