New Weed Control Working

The weed chemical "Atrazine" has proven to be most effective in Cherokee County this year. Atrazine has made it possible to make the biggest jump we have ever made in reducing labor in corn production.

Emory Shields of Culbertson, Wilson Phillips of Martin's Creek, Paul Nave of Murphy, and others, used this chemical successfully this spring. The chemical will control most weeds and grasses in the corn field. Cultivation, hoeing and sidedressing have been eliminated in the fields where Atrazine was successfully used.

The procedure with Atrazine is to broadcast all fertilizer, plant the corn, spray it and then get out of the field until harvest. This is a near miracle to corn producers.

Tobacco Budworms
In observing several tobacco fields last week in Unaka, Hangingdog, Martin's Creek and Peachtree communities, the tobacco budworm is doing severe damage. This insect can be controlled with 10% DDT or 10% TDE dust. These chemicals can also be obtained as a spray material. It will be necessary to treat at least once a week to stop the insect damage.

Lime Necessary
For soil test results taken in the county over fifty per cent of all our soils are below the best PH range for crops being grown. Since low PH soils will tie up large amounts of phosphorus it is important to lime.

Test Soil Now

All fields intended for alfalfa and other hay crops should be tested now. Any additional lime needed should be applied early to act before crops start growing. Most failure of alfalfa and hay crop seedlings have been the failure to know how much fertilizer to apply and as a result not putting down the required amount. Soil test boxes and information sheets are available from most Agri. workers in the county.

Shearing Demonstration To Be Held

Leonard Hampton, Forest Management Extension Specialist for the Western District will conduct a Christmas Tree Shearing Demonstration on Friday, June 29, at 10:00 a.m., on the farm of Georg Bidstrup in the Brasstown Community. All Christmas Tree Growers and interested people are invited to attend this demonstration. This will be of interest to those who have pines or ornamentals. Christmas tree growers are especially urged to attend so they will be prepared to start shearing on their plantations at the first sign of need.

Miss Joanne Davenport, a junior at the Aultman Hospital School of Nursing has returned to Canton, Ohio, to resume her nursing training. Miss Davenport spent her June vacation with her grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Phillips of Andrews, and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Williams of Tampa, Fla.

Arrangements under the direction of Townson Funeral Home were incomplete Wednesday.

ADAMS

Robbinsville -- William Robert Adams, 92, of Robbinsville died Friday morning in a Bryson City hospital after a few days' illness.

He was a native of Graham County, son of the late Taylor and Jane Crisp Adams. His wife, Mrs. Alice Slaughter Adams, died in 1957. He was a member of Mountain Creek Baptist Church and had served as a Graham County law enforcement officer for 25 years before his retirement.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Viola Crisp of Robbinsville; two sons, Claude of Robbinsville and Wayne Adams of Mableton, Ga.; 14 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Sunday in Mountain Creek Baptist Church.

Burial was in old Mother Cemetery. Townson Funeral Home was in charge.

MRS. GAINES JONES THE FORMER MISS CHRISTINE GLADSON

Marriage Announced

The marriage of Miss Christine Gladson of Atlanta, Ga., daughter of Mrs. J. E. Gladson and the late J. E. Gladson of Murphy to Gaines Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tote Jones of Blue Ridge, Ga., took place in the First Baptist Church of Blue Ridge, Sunday at 3:30 p.m.

The Rev. Howard B. Merritt performed the double ring ceremony.

The altar was decorated with an arch entwined with string smilax, white glads and white mums; lighted candles and tropical ferns, woodwanda and magnolia.

Mrs. Bess Swanson was organist and Miss Vera Carney sang "Because" Whither Thou Goest" and "The Brides Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother Harold Gladson of Hayesville. Her gown was of Chantilly lace and imported peau-de-soie over satin. The fragile lace formed the entire basque bodice and featured long tapering sleeves, white sequins and seed pearls edged the neck line. The bouffant floor length skirt of satin designed with an over skirt of lace extending into a chapel train. Her floor length veil of French illusion fell from a pearl queens crown. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, white sweetheart roses and orange blossoms.

Miss Mary Frances Stewart of Woodstock, Georgia was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sue Gibson and Miss Wilma Hughes of Atlanta, Georgia; Miss Betty Gladson of Hayesville. Their dresses were of red silk organza and matching head pieces with veils, full skirts and matching shoes.

The flower girl was Sharon Gladson, niece of the bride. Her dress was of red silk organza with full skirt and a matching head piece with veil. She carried a white lace basket decorated with red satin hand-made roses and filled with white petals.

Charles Conley of Blue Ridge, Ga. was the ring bearer.

Jim Conley of Atlanta was best man and ushers were George Collins and Walter Sims of Atlanta, and Harold Herndon of Blue Ridge.

The brides mother wore a blue lace dress and white accessories and her corsage was of white carnations. The grooms mother wore a blue lace dress with white accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Gladson was hostess at a reception in the church social hall. The brides table was covered with a white satin cloth with bows of pure silk and satin roses. A tiered cake in all white was in the center and pink fruit punch was poured from a crystal punch bowl at the other end of the table. Two friends of the bride served and the sister of the groom kept the brides book.

When the couple left for Washington, D. C. they wore matching suits of blue and the brides accessories were white.

After a wedding trip the couple will be at home at 550 Orme Circle N. E., Atlanta, Ga. The groom is employed by the Southern Saw Co. and the bride is employed by a branch office of the American Credit and Indemnity Co. of New York.

Andrews First Methodist Got New Minister

Andrews -- The Rev. Joel T. Key, new pastor of the First Methodist Church of Andrews, recently moved to Andrews. Rev. Key was formerly pastor of the St. Paul Methodist Church of Greensboro, N. C. where he served for eight years, the longest pastorate in the history of that church. During his stay at St. Paul Church, a new building site of five acres was purchased in a rapidly growing area of the city, a new parsonage was built, and a new church building of contemporary architectural design was built.

Rev. Key attended Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree. He attended Duke Divinity School of Duke University in Durham where he received his bachelor of Divinity degree.

Rev. Key is a native of High Point, N. C. and is married to Faith Otter Key, formerly of New York State. They have two sons, Mark age 6 and Stephen age 4.
