

Gregg Payne Wins Scout First Grand Award

Thank You...

This has been a wonderful experience for us, seeing old friends, and making new ones. We want to thank each and everyone that helped us in this campaign to win the Dodge Dart which we are proud of and we wish for all of you the very best in life.

May God bless everyone.
Sincerely, Gregg Payne

In regards to the recent Campaign sponsored by The Cherokee Scout and Clay County Progress, we want to first thank the management and staff for letting us participate in this contest. We feel that it has been a worth while experience for us. We met a lot of people and feel sure that we have gained new friends as well as a better understanding of our fellowman. Thanks to all of you who helped us to be a winner in this campaign.

Our congratulations and best wishes go to each of the other Campaign workers. It has been a pleasure to know each of you.

I, as a routeman, would also like to take this opportunity to thank the many customers who have patronized Imperial Laundry and Cleaners in my behalf.

May God richly bless each of you, and again, our deepest appreciation for your kindness in supporting us.

Evalea and Herbert O'Dell.

I want to thank each and everyone who supported me by giving me your subscriptions to the Cherokee Scout and Clay County Progress, in the contest that closed last Saturday. Even though I didn't win the Dodge Dart, I am deeply grateful for all the help and good wishes of my friends, Audrey Duckworth, Hayesville, N. C.

To all the many friends and neighbors that gave me their support in the "Campaign for Progress." I wish to say thank you, and wish you many happy hours reading your Cherokee Scout and Clay County Progress.

Thank You Again,
Mrs. James H. Wallace

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to all my friends who supported me in the Scout Campaign Contest. Loyal friends are more valuable than all the money or prizes. I would also like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Wise and the paper staff for being so nice to work with.

Mrs. Wilda Barnard, Warne.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank all the people who supported me in the Cherokee Scout Campaign of Progress. To all my good friends and acquaintances who renewed their subscriptions and all new subscribers, may some of you live so long. To all I promised a ride in my new car, don't give up, we will figure out something. With all the good competition I had, I am real proud to have won Second Prize. It will buy a heck of a lot of Pork and Beans.

Again to all the good people who helped me win, those from Clay and Graham, as well as Cherokee County, Murphy, also Routes one, three, and four, Murphy, My heartfelt thanks for your support, but to Route 2, Murphy, my love and gratitude for their all out support.

Sincerely, Jo Moody

To all the many friends and neighbors that gave me their support in the "Campaign of Progress," I wish to thank you for your kindness, Mrs. Garland Hedrick.

I would like to express my appreciation to each person who took a subscription from me to the Scout in the "Campaign of Progress." Miss Charlene Thomas, Brasstown.

A Successful Campaign

The Cherokee Scout and Clay County Progress "Campaign of Progress" which closed last Saturday was, we believe, one of the most successful circulation campaigns that has ever been conducted in this state. It was made so by the hard-working contestants and by the generous cooperation given to them by the people all over Cherokee, Clay and Graham Counties.

As a result of this campaign, The Cherokee Scout and Clay County Progress now have the largest circulation in the history of any newspaper in this three county area, and it is paid circulation. Our paid circulation list now ranks among the leaders in the non-daily field in the state. The Scout provides complete local trade area coverage reaching 20,000 people weekly.

The Scout wishes to extend its sincere thanks to all of the contestants for having worked so hard throughout the campaign. We regretted that it was not possible for each and everyone to have won first prize because of the enthusiasm which they manifested in their work for this newspaper.

Likewise we wish to extend our thanks to the people of Cherokee, Clay and Graham Counties who so generously supported the campaign thus enabling us to go far beyond the goal which we had set for it.

We also wish to extend our thanks to D. C. Wise, who managed the campaign, so courteously and efficiently. He proved himself to be tops in his field and he earned the respect of all the contestants. He treated this newspaper as if it were his own.

We welcome our new subscribers and trust they will enjoy The Cherokee Scout and Clay County Progress. As we have said repeatedly, our constant endeavor is to conduct the paper in the finest tradition of journalism and to continually adhere to the high code of ethics to which responsible newspapers subscribe.

The Cherokee Scout and Clay County Progress' "Campaign of Progress" closed promptly as advertised at 2 p.m. Saturday, July 7. It was late that afternoon before the judging team of three outstanding citizens, one each from Murphy, Andrews, and Hayesville, tabulated the records and announced the winners to a large and anxious crowd of campaign workers and their friends gathered in front of the Scout Office on Hickory Street.

The winners were as follows:

Gregg Payne of Andrews was presented the 1962 Dodge Dart 2 door sedan from E. C. Moore Dodge in Murphy, as first place winner with 25,701,100 vote credits.

Miss Jo Moody of Murphy, won second award, $500 cash, with 22,469,650 vote credits; Herbert O'Dell of Hanging Dog, won third award, $250 in cash, with 16,645,850 vote credits; Miss Audrey Duckworth of Hayesville, won fourth award, $150 cash with 9,936,500 vote credits, and Mrs. Garland Hedrick of Highway 64 west, won the fifth award of $100 cash, with 8,492,100 vote credits.

The number of votes earned by each of the contestants can be found in the formal report of the judges on this page.

Campaign manager D. C. Wise, newspaper circulation expert of Asheville, who conducted the highly successful campaign, expressed his personal appreciation to the candidates for their very fine work in the campaign and to the public throughout Cherokee, Clay and Graham Counties for their excellent cooperation.

Jerue Babb, publisher of the newspaper, expressed his sincere gratitude to all the workers and to the people all over this county and neighboring counties for their generous consideration. "Your newspaper now has the largest circulation in its 72 year history," he said. "Never before has a newspaper in these three most western counties of North Carolina had such a wide circulation. Unofficial totals placed the new subscribers at 1,967, only 33 short of two thousand."

This week's press run was 4,850. Figuring four to five persons in the average family your newspaper now reaches 20,000 people in the Murphy and surrounding trading area," he added. "For this I am sincerely grateful. Thank you for your confidence."

Bloodmobile To Be Here Wednesday

The Bloodmobile will make its annual summer visit to Murphy on next Wednesday, July 18th, according to H. L. McKeever, chairman of the Murphy Blood Program.

As usual blood donors should report to the Power Board Building between the hours of 12:30 and 5:30 p.m.

"Blood is needed badly, mostly because the summer months find many regular donors on vacation, and as a consequence, we are urging every one to make their best effort to come in and give blood July 18th," McKeever said. During the last "blood-year" there were 304 pints of blood donated through the Bloodmobile in Murphy, and the community should be justly proud of this record, but should attempt to better it during the coming year. Wednesday, July 18th is a good time to start.

Little League Will Field All Star Team

Andrews - The Andrews Little League will field an All Star team for the only tournament game scheduled in Andrews for July 19 at 5 p.m. Cherokee will be the visiting team. The winners will meet the winners of the Sylva - Franklin game on Friday July 20 at Sylva. The following players are on the All Star Team. Gary Tatham, Dickie Tatham, Wayne Curtis, Eddie Raxter, David Allen, Ross McClelland, John Wishon, Jerry Tatham, Lynn Roper, Thomas Frye, Garey Allen Jackie Ledford, Garey Morgan, Andrew Reichman.

The Little Leaguers would like to thank all those who worked so hard to make the concession stand a success on the 4th of July.

Lightning Strikes Teen Ager

Miss Ruby Carter, age 17, of Murphy Rt. 3, was struck by lightning Sunday night, July 9, while sitting on the arm of a couch in the living room of her home. She was given artificial respiration by her father for about one hour before reviving her. During that time the lights all went out.

It was presumed that the lightning came in on the wires to the light in the living room. Miss Carter was carried to a Murphy hospital by ambulance. Doctors gave her other treatment and let her go back home. She is reported to be recovering.

Miss Carter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Carter of Murphy Rt. 3.

A house belonging to Roland Wells, and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Queen was completely destroyed by fire Friday July 6 around 3:30 p.m. The fire, believed to have started from defective wiring, was discovered by Mrs. Queen. She had left the house and gone to the barn to do the night work when she discovered the fire. There were no clothes nor furniture saved when the house burned. Mr. and Mrs. Queen have four children and are now living in another house owned by Mr. Wells. Since the fire many people have given them clothes, furniture, linen and other useful articles.
