Two Asheville Men Are Injured Near Murphy

Murphy -- The driver and a passenger were injured about 6 p.m. Tuesday in a car accident on U. S. 19 three miles east of the Murphy town limits, State Highway Patrolman D. W. Reavis reported.

Walter Houston, 22, of 133 Red Oak Rd. Asheville, the driver, was admitted to Murphy General Hospital for treatment of left arm and forehead lacerations and a possible right knee fracture. Joseph Jennings, 23, of Baird Cove Rd., Asheville, the passenger, was admitted to the hospital for treatment of a broken collarbone, two fractured ribs, back lacerations and right arm abrasions.

Patrolman Reavis said Houston lost control of the vehicle on wet pavement in a curve, ran off the highway on the right side, and struck a tree.

The vehicle was reported to be a total loss. Houston was charged with driving too fast for road conditions.
