SECOND CLASS POSTAGE PAID AT MURPHY, NORTH CAROLINA

Glider Pilot Thanks Andrews Man

Andrews -- Sam Stewart who observed a glider crash of pilot Walter Fuller recently and immediately reported it received the following letter of thanks from Mr. Fuller.

Hayesville, N.C., July 25, 1962.

Dear Mr. Stewart,

I'd like to express my deep gratitude for your help in the search, after I crashed in my sailplane near Andrews. Without you pinpointing the crash area, I might not have been found for some time.

With sincere thanks, Walter Fuller.

Nantahala Hearing Set For August

Raleigh - The State Utilities Commission will hear arguments Aug. 9 on a motion to reopen the Nantahala Power & Light Co. rate case.

The commission fixed the date and set the hearing time at 2:30 p.m. in an order issued Tuesday.

The petition to reopen the rate case was filed July 3 by a group of Western North Carolina towns, counties and agencies opposed to the rate increase. They claimed "Newly discovered evidence" that could affect the commission's decision.

They said they are prepared to show that Nantahala could be supplied with enough low cost power from the Tennessee Valley Authority to "obviate any necessity..." for the company to increase its rate of return.

The commission already has agreed to hold further hearings on another case involving Nantahala, in which the company proposes to sell its electric distribution facilities to Duke Power Co.

HANDS OFF, UPSIDE DOWN - Flying inverted some 150 feet from the ground with his hands off the controls is just one of the precision maneuvers packed into the All Star Air Show coming to the Andrews - Murphy Airport Sunday, Aug. 12. The air show is being sponsored by the Andrews Lions Club. The show will start at 2:00 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 12. Featured performers will be:

Bob Nance, Winston Salem, N. C. - Captain of Piedmont Airlines, Winston Salem, N. C. Started his aerobatics flying in 1930s as a barn storming pilot. He flies a Great Lakes Bi-Plane with smoke. He is now on his way back from Europe where he participated in aerobatics competition for the World Championship.

Lynn Backtell, Roanoke, Va. - One of the greatest sail plane pilots of the USA. Will replace Walter Fuller who crashed his sail plane about two weeks ago.

Neal Kilby, Atlanta, Ga. - Will radio control an airplane doing aerobatics maneuvers.

C. H. "Ace" Townson, Marble, N. C. - Is a local pilot. Was one of the first pilots in this area to learn to fly. Was a fighter pilot during World War II with plenty of action in Burma. Built his own aerobatic airplane and does a good job flying it.

Ben Huntley, Charlotte, N. C. - He has performed here many times and is one of the greatest air show pilots of all times. Haski Deaton, Charlotte, N. C. - is the most outstanding aviation sport event announcer. Deaton has been in demand as announcer for sporting events from Florida to Canada and has announced 3 shows here previously.

Georgia Sky Divers, Gainesville, Ga. - Four divers will jump from an altitude of 12,000 feet and criss cross one another's paths trailing smoke down to an altitude of 2,000 feet before opening their parachutes.

The air show will be supervised by Air Traffic Control Supervisor, Atlanta, Ga. and District Safety Agent, Charlotte, N. C. and local and state police.

Schedule of events for the air show are: Air Show will begin at 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. Parachute Jump - Alton Dishroon Gainesville, Ga.; 2:10 p.m. Aerobatics with Smoke - Bob Nance Winston Salem, N. C.; 2:30 p.m. Sail Plane Aerobatics - Lynn Backtell, Roanoke, Va.; 2:45 p.m. Midget Bi-Plane Aerobatics - C. H. (Ace) Townson, Marble, N. C.; 3:00 p.m. Radio Controlled Aerobatics - Neal Kilby, Atlanta, Ga.; 3:15 p.m. Cub Act - Ben Huntley, Charlotte, N. C.; 3:30 p.m. Aerobatics - Bevo Howard, Charleston, S. C.; 3:40 p.m. Sky Diving from High Altitudes - Georgia Sky Divers, Gainesville, Ga.

Murphy Lions To Sponsor County Fair

The Cherokee County Fair Association announced Wednesday, August 1, that the Murphy Lions Club will sponsor this year's county fair. The fair, an annual event here for many years, will be held the second week in September.

The fair association assigned all rights for the official Cherokee County Fair to the Murphy civic club following a meeting at the Power Board Building Tuesday night. A contract covering the next three years was signed by the fair association and the club.

Under the sponsorship of the Lions Club the official fair will be held the week of September 10. Fair association directors had announced earlier that the fair would not be held this year. All participants in last year's fair are invited to enter exhibits this year.

Ribbon awards will be given to winners in the different events and exhibits. The same series of events and exhibits as followed last year will be used again this year. Emphasis will be on blue ribbon awards to first place winners.

John Gill, president of the Murphy club, said the aim of the club's sponsorship of the County fair will be "improve the Cherokee County Fair to the point that it exceeds the Georgia Mountain Fair held annually at Hiwassee, Ga. The Lions Club will work to give the people of this section a bigger and better fair than has ever been held in Murphy."

John Reid's All-American Show will return again this year. All concessions will be handled by the various civic groups as in the past. J. Doyle Burch, Lions Club Fair committee chairman, and Bob White, Club fund raising chairman, will co-ordinate this year's fair.

Details will be published in this newspaper weekly during the next six weeks on all aspects of the rules and regulations governing the 1962 Cherokee County Fair.

Open Letter To Teenager

The following message is borrowed from the bulletin of the First Baptist Church at Inman, S. C.

Open Letter to a Teenager (from Denver Juvenile Court) ALWAYS WE HEAR THE PLAINTIVE CRY OF THE TEENAGERS: WHAT CAN WE DO? WHERE CAN WE GO? THE ANSWER IS...

Go home and hang the storm windows. Paint the woodwork. Rake the leaves. Mow the lawn. Shovel the walk. Wash the car. Learn to cook. Scrub some floors. Repair the sink. Build a boat. Get a job. Help the minister, priest, or rabbi; the Red Cross the Salvation Army. Visit the sick. Assist the poor. Study your lessons. And the when you are through -- and not too tired -- read a book.

Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your village does not owe you recreation facilities. The world does NOT owe you a living. You owe the world something. You owe it your time and energy and your talents so that no one will be at war or in poverty or sick or lonely again.

In plain simple words -- GROW up; quite being a cry-baby; get out of your dream world; develop a backbone, not a wishbone; and start acting like a man or a lady.

I'm a parent, I'm tired of nursing, promoting, helping, appealing, begging, excusing, elerating, denying myself needed comforts for every whim and fancy just because your selfish ego instead of common sense dominates your personality and thinking, and requests.

Sincerely,
A Loving Parent
