CLARENCE STONE, . . . T. Clarence Stone of Rockingham County who will be the presiding officer of the State Senate during the 1963 session of the General Assembly is a colorful man with a whole lot of down-to-earth homespun philosophy and wit about him.

of the late Governor and U.S. Senator W. Kerr Scott sounded just like his dad as he lambasted the State Utilities Commission for its decision in the sale of Nantahala Power & Light Company to Duke Power Company a few days ago.

Fort Gordon, Ga. -- Army Pvt. Ronald W. Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil W. Roberts Route 1, Murphy, N.C. completed eight weeks of advanced individual infantry training at Fort Gordon, Ga., Dec. 14.

Roberts received instruction in combat techniques and in firing the M-14 rifle and M-60 machinegun, two of the Army's newest infantry weapons.

The 20-year-old soldier entered the Army in July 1962. Roberts is a 1961 graduate of Murphy High School.

USS VALLEY FORGE - David L. Eller, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Odus Eller of Route 1, Hayesville, N. C.

The amphibious assault ship USS Valley Forge is scheduled to return to Long Beach, Calif., Dec. 15, after spending an eight-month tour of duty with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

The crew of the Valley Forge and a Marine battalion landing team she carried visited such ports as Hong Kong, Manila and Buckner Bay, Okinawa. While serving with the Seventh Fleet, the Valley Forge operated out of the Naval Base at Subic Bay, Republic of the Philippines.

Circle One of the First Methodist Church held their annual Christmas dinner at the Regal Hotel Tuesday December 19.

Mrs. Hugh Howard read the Christmas story as related in the Gospel of St. Luke. Special guest was Miss Jerry Ruth Smith who led the group in singing Christmas Carols.

Miss Smith also sang "I Wonder as I Wander." She told how John Jacob Niles, the famous folk-singer copied the song and made it familiar to millions after hearing it in Murphy many years ago.

In keeping with the true spirit of Christmas, Circle members gave generously of their time and means to make Christmas happier for those less fortunate.

Robert Scott, young and vigorous is following the same line of talk that made his dad unbeatable in Tar Heel politics.

We don't know what Robert has in mind for the immediate future. If he is like his dad, he will not wait until the professionals tell him the time is ripe -- he will jump right out on his own. Wouldn't surprise us to see Robert running for Commissioner of Agriculture or Governor before long -- and we don't expect him to wait 15 or 20 years, even though he would then not be an old man.

His dad was Master of the State Grange and Commissioner of Agriculture before running for Governor.

PETER YOUNG . . . When Dr. Lake ran for Governor in North Carolina in 1960 he was unable to secure a Tar Heel newspaperman to handle his publicity, so he had to go to Virginia for his publicity director.

Peter B. Young, editor of the Rutherford News-Journal might be his man come 1964. Peter says: "Not only will Lake run, he is already running -- and very effectively, in my opinion."

DEATH SENTENCE . . . Governor Sanford's decision to commute two of the six on death row at Christmas time will no doubt be a factor in causing the General Assembly to take another look at the death sentence law which was debated right much during the 1961 session.

Representatives Pat Taylor of Anson and Buck Harris of Wake led the fight to abolish the death sentence.

PROMOTION . . . Someone congratulated Judge Ed Clark of Bladen in the Sir Walter a few days upon his appointment as the Governor's liaison representative with the General Assembly.

Rep. David Britton of Fairmont, spoke up in jest and took issue. The Robeson legislator said he always considered a superior court judgeship a step-up, and to him it looked like a step-down to the liaison position.

(Anyway, Ed will probably be stepping back up or down to his old judicial position, come July 1, 1963.

FORMAL SENATE . . . The State Senate is generally much more formal, mild and considerate than is the House with more than twice the Senate's membership.

Clarence Stone, who served seven terms in the House before being elected to the Senate, can be counted on to make the august body a little less formal and a little more like the House.

SAME OLD COON . . . When we were serving our first term in the House back in 1947, Clarence Stone was serving his seventh and last term in the House.

We remember him as a man who was very much opposed to regulatory boards and when someone would come up with a proposal for a new one, Clarence would remark that it was the "same old coon with another ring around its tail."

Regulatory boards can expect pretty hard sledding in the Senate with Clarence in the driver's seat.

CHIEF INTERESTS . . . We would expect Senator Stone's chief legislative interest would center around helping the mental institutions and safety legislation.

Clarence's only daughter was killed by an auto at Christmas time some years ago with faulty equipment. Since the tragic accident Clarence has been a front line supporter of highway safety legislation.

Clarence lives alone in Stoneville, his wife having died a few years ago. He is a Presbyterian, an insurance agent, oil distributor and wholesale grocer.

ROBERT SCOTT . . . Robert Scott, Master of the North Carolina State Grange and son

J. H. Duncan and son, Harry left Sunday for Birmingham, Ala. on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Burgess, Kaye and Douglas, spent Christmas with relatives in Lenoir.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Palmer of Canton spent the weekend with Mr. Palmer's mother and sister, Mrs. Dixie and Miss Hattie Palmer.

Mrs. Ann Ward and Mrs. Mabel Massey spent last week end in Anderson, S. C., the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Hoover.

Lucille Bell of Andrews, announces the engagement of her daughter, Elizabeth Bell, to Maruice West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman West, of Andrews. Wedding plans are incomplete.

Miss Edith Harriet Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Vick Curtis and the late Kermit Taylor of Andrews, was married to Howard R. Lamber, son of Mrs. Ollie Lamber and the late Thomas Lambert of Andrews.

The marriage took place in McCalleyville, Ga., Dec. 23, with Roy Chapman ordinary, performing the ceremony.

ONLY YESTERDAY

30 YEARS AGO JANUARY 6, 1933

A rather novel and unique gift was presented to the Carnegie Library this week by Mrs. Nettie Dickey in the form of an old map of Murphy.

It is perhaps the first map ever made of the town, showing the first 24 lots sold by the State in 1838, and was made by James Fletcher, surveyor.

It is drawn in outline with a note of explanation to one side.

Miss Polly Davis and Paul Howell left Wednesday for Gastonia.
