Spring Returns

Spring is a daffodil,
Raising it's yellow head, high,
Spring is a shy little violet,
Nodding to me as I pass by.

Spring is a crocus,
A hyacinth sweetly scented,
The pussy willows bursting into bloom,
A little lamb, contented.

Spring is a mocking bird,
A cardinal bursting into song,
Spring is a sweet gay season,
That I've yearned for the whole winter long.

Spring is a bit of heaven,
That God lends to His earth,
It's a joyous, glorious time,
So precious is its worth.

By Nelle June Reid.
