

Mrs. Ken Davis
Re-elected
To Baptist Post

MURPHY - Mrs. Kenneth Davis was re-elected president of the Western North Carolina Baptist Association WMU held last Thursday, April 30, in Peachtree Memorial Baptist Church. The afternoon and night meeting was tied to the theme "We've a Story To Tell" of the organization's 75th year, and the 50th year of the Girl's Auxiliary, with appropriate costumes. Mr. Collon Godwin, BUS director of Western Carolina College was the principal speaker, taking the audience on a slide tour of Ghana, where he was a missionary for three years. Officers elected and installed were: Mrs. Kenneth Davis, president; Mrs. Edgar A. Wood, vice-president; Mrs. Everett English, secretary; and treasurer; Mrs. Kenneth Woodard, Jubilee Chairman; Miss Doris Raxter, WYA director; Mrs. Lloyd Hendrix, Sunbeam Band Director; Miss Tribby Glenn, Mission Study chairman; Mrs. Frank Hall, Sewardship chairman; Mrs. James Glenn, prayer chairman; Mrs. Carl West, community missions chairman; and Mrs. J. E. Greene, director of enlistment.

A highlight of the world mission emphasis program was presentation of a panel made up of Mrs. Walkinstick of Cherokee, Mrs. Olga Monagudo, of Cuba; Mrs. Jimmy

Only Yesterday

30 YEARS AGO
MAY 19, 1933

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Burns and little daughter of Copperhill, Tenn., spent Sunday with relatives and friends here. Mr. John Brittain of Atlanta, Ga. spent Sunday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Barclay and sons of Copperhill, Tenn., spent Sunday with Mrs. Barclay's sister, Mrs. H. E. Bishop.

Ledford of Hayesville, native of Germany, and Mrs. James Blankenship of Hayesville, and a native of England.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Chandler and daughter, Rosyan left last Friday for a visit with relatives and friends in Atlanta. Mr. Nick Posey who has been a page in the House of Representatives at Raleigh for the past four months returned home Sunday.

Miss Mary Willard Cooper and Master Richard Mauney are visiting relatives at Knoxville, Maryville and other points in Tennessee.

Miss Mae Keener returned home Sunday, after spending two weeks vacation with friends in Durham, Raleigh and other points east. While in Durham she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leatherwood. Mrs. Leatherwood will be remembered as Miss Margaret Stalcup of Murphy.

20 YEARS AGO
MAY 20, 1943

Mrs. Ruth Carringer was a visitor in Dahlonega one day last week.

Larry Posey has returned home from a visit with relatives in Asheville.

Mrs. Glen Bates and son, Gene, spent last week-end in Fontana with Mrs. John Davidson and Mrs. Garrison Maneval.

Mrs. Clyde Sneed is visiting relatives in Goldsboro this week.

Misses Emily and Sarah Sword and Mary Sue Brandon and John Sword were visitors in Blairsville Sunday. Miss Dorothy Hensley returned home Sunday from a visit with relatives in Asheville.

Mrs. Louise Rogers of Andrews was a business visitor in town Monday.

Miss Ella McCombs will leave this week for a two weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. R. B. Harbin and Mr. Harbin in Knoxville, Tenn.

Misses Mary Cornwell and Jimmie Nell Carey spent the week-end in Hartsville, Tenn., with relatives.

10 YEARS AGO
MAY 21, 1953

The Rev. Asmond Maxwell, Mrs. Maxwell and the four little Maxwells, Susan, 9; Peter, 7; Jonathan 4; and David this week moved into the parsonage of the First Methodist Church here, with Mr. Maxwell assuming his duties as pastor of the local church.

Eighth Grade graduation exercises at Andrews Elementary School will be held Friday, May 22, at 10:30 a.m. with the Rev. John Corbitt, pastor of the Andrews First Baptist Church as speaker.

Eighty-five students will receive certificates of promotion to the high school. Miss Edna Bishop, home agent, Mrs. Frances Puett, assistant home agent, G. H. Farley, county agent and L. V. McMahan, assistant county agent are attending a joint meeting of Farm and Home Agents from the Western and Northwestern District at Fontana Dam this week.

Cherokee Scout & Clay County Progress, Thu., May 16, 1963

See Us For . . .

The Scout

WHEN A LION KNOCKS...

'OPEN THE DOOR AND OPEN YOUR HEART'

BUY A BROOM!

Here's a grand way to say thanks for the sight you have . . . buy a broom from the friendly Lion at your door this week. All proceeds go to the blind and for sight conservation. Save $1.50 now for a grand broom . . . and a great cause! If you won't be at home when the Lion calls with your broom, please leave him a note saying when you will be home!

Remember the opportunity to buy these quality brooms, made by the blind, only happens once a year. If one broom won't last all year long, then you'd better buy two . . . and help the blind twice as much!

MEMO TO
Manufacturers and Business Firms
Buy your brooms now . . . buy a whole year's supply . . . help the MURPHY Lions Club in their drive to aid the Blind . . .
For "Heavy Duty" Industrial Brooms . . .
See Any Member of the Lions Club . . .
— or —
DIAL 837-2516
Lions Club Warehouse

BROOM SALE IS TUESDAY NIGHT, MAY 21

House-To-House Canvass By A Member Of The Lions Club Begins Tuesday Evening . . .

THERE IS NO BETTER WAY TO THANK GOD FOR YOUR SIGHT . . . THAN TO HELP SOMEONE IN THE DARK . . .

— HELEN KELLER