

Twenty-six seniors with their sponsors and chaperones, left Hayesville on April 20 for Washington, D. C., and New York City.

After having breakfast on Sunday morning in Richmond, Va., the group toured Mt. Vernon, and then visited the Arlington National Cemetery, where they witnessed the change of Guards at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Among other places of interest were Lee's Mansion, Lincoln Memorial, Washington Monument, The White House, the National Gallery of Art, the Washington Cathedral, and a visit to Congress while it was in session.

An exciting evening of fun was the Moonlight Cruise down the Potomac River, and an hour at the Marshall Hall Amusement Park.

On the fifth day, the group left Washington, via the Baltimore, New Jersey Turnpike to New York, where they boarded a sight-seeing boat for a cruise around the "Island of Manhattan." That night, they visited Radio City Music Hall where they saw the world famous "Rockettes."

In New York, a trained guide went with the group through Chinatown, the Bowery, the Empire State Building, the Statue of Liberty, the United Nations Building, and many other points of interest.

Some free time was given for shopping, a trip to Coney Island, and a ball game.

The cost of the trip was $66.30 per person, in addition to their meals. Each student received forty dollars from the class treasury, and many had earned the rest of their money by working on individual projects sponsored by the class. Sponsors and chaperones were Mrs. Laura McGlamery, Mrs. Shelby J. Woody, Mr. Eugene Waldroup, Mrs. Ora McGlamery, and Mrs. Eula Miller.

Seniors making the trip were: Sibyl Bell, Judy Tipton, Ann Fraley, Judy Penland, Dot Ford, Carol Ann Gibby, Shirley York, Laura Faye Sparks, Betty Davis, Linda Sawyer, David Ledford, Eston Stalcup, Tommy Davenport, George Berrong, Manuel Payne, Leroy Coker, Gary Massey, Benny Miller, Tom Buckner, Dwight Bristol, Luther Owens, John Marr, Dan McGlamery, Terrance Powell, Thomas Wimpey, and Bobby Burch. The same bus driver, Mr. Gibbs has gone on each trip from Hayesville and was also the driver on this trip.
