Three Groups Win Ribbons

The Home Economic Department of Murphy High School won a blue ribbon for their exhibit during National Education Week, November 10-16. The prize winning exhibit, which featured clothes made by the Home Ec. girls, was displayed in the window of Candler's Department Store. Four of the six articles of clothing displayed were made by ninth-grade girls, Judy Quinn, Naomi Sprung, and Brenda Nix had blouses in the window. Complimenting the skill of the girls were a shift made by Carolyn McGaha, a skirt made by Nada Stiles, and a suede suit by Carla Beth Stiles.

Second place, a red ribbon was awarded to Miss Travis' art class for their display of charcoal sketches in Ivie Furniture Store. Students whose art work was in the exhibit were Jimmy Sherrill, a figure study and landscape; Wanda Mingus and Adinah Brown, figure studies; Dan Lovingood, Danny Sneed, Loretta Brickey, Dean Haigler, scapes.

Mrs. Benson's class won third place for their exhibit on high school drop-outs which was displayed in the window of Lena's Department Store.

Mrs. John Lester Mulkey. . . former Miss Davidson

Miss Davidson Is Wed To John Lester Mulkey

MURPHY - Miss Kathleen Axley Davidson became the bride of John Lester Mulkey, Saturday, December 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the First Methodist Church.

The Rev. Clark W. Benson conducted the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Davidson, the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Davidson and the late Mr. and Mrs. John W. Axley of Murphy.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Mulkey of Murphy.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white satin peau de soie and alencon lace gown, with empire basque effect, long sleeves pointed over the hands, a sabrina neckline with accents of alencon lace and seed pearls, a full length skirt flowing toward the back in a hint of a chapel train. The four tiered veil of imported illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of crystallized orange blossoms, encrusted with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bride carried a bouquet of Happiness Roses showered with streamers of Stephanotis.

Miss Paula Dean Crook of Troy, N. C., was maid of honor. She was attired in an emerald green velveteen dress, fashioned with a fitted bodice and long sleeves pointed over the hands. She wore a matching circlet of velveteen and illusion, and carried a white fur muffed with red velvet ribbon with poinsettias.

Bridesmaids included Miss Martha Sue Derberry of Andrews and Miss Bette Drucilla Bridges of Falls Church, Va. Both wore identical emerald green velveteen gowns fashioned like those of the honor attendant, and each carried white fur muffs.

Roger Mulkey of Canton, N. C. was his brother's best man. Usher-groomsman were John Haralson Duncan, Samuel Walter Duncan, Edward McAfee and John Allen Davidson, Jr., brother of the bride, all of Murphy.

Music was presented by Mrs. Lelia Axley Van Gorder of Andrews, organist. Mrs. Charles West of Andrews was soloist.

The bride's mother chose a day-length gown of dubonnet Chantilly lace over taffeta with satin cummerbund, elbow length gloves and matching headdress of net and feathers, and her corsage was of pink roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose a day-length gown of fern green wool crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of roses.

The reception following the wedding was held at the historic home of the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Axley and was given by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin E. Warner, cousins of the bride. Assisting were Miss Sandra Lepscier of Charlotte, Miss Lynn Whitley and Miss Sarah Easley of Murphy, Miss Gngelle Vuchetch of Atlanta, cousin of the bride and Miss Irene Warner of Murphy, cousin of the bride.

Miss Sarah Easley kept the bride's book.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a gold wool ensemble with brown accessories and a bronze corsage.

Mrs. Mulkey is a junior at Western Carolina College, where she is a member of Delta Zeta Sorority. Upon her return from her wedding trip she will return to WCC to continue her education.

The bridegroom attended Western Carolina College and is employed by the Southern Railway Company, Asheville.

The rehearsal dinner party was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mattox on Friday night, December 20, at 8:00 p.m.

Special Christmas Message
This is a special Christmas message from Noah Lovingood, owner of Murphy Supply Company
We have been permitted to enjoy the blessings of another Christmas Season. As we pause here at Murphy Supply Company to celebrate Christmas, 1963 we have many blessings to be thankful for and we count them one by one. For all of them we are very grateful.
To our many friends and customers we are grateful for your friendship, loyalty and pleasant business relations. All of them have helped ease the pathway of life. To you we are thankful.
For the year 1964 we promise to strive harder to merit your friendship. To you and yours, my family and I and the employees of Murphy Supply Company sincerely wish each and every one of you health, happiness, and a very Merry Christmas.
