Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Martin

Miss Kilbourn Is Wed To Jack R. Martin

ANDREWS - Miss Lillian May Kilbourn, daughter of Mrs. Harold Eldridge of Winsted, Conn., and Jack R. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Martin of Andrews were married December 7 at the First Church in Winsted with Rev. Granville Greenwald officiating.

For her wedding the bride wore a formal gown of chantilly lace featuring a bouffant skirt with a full chapel train. Her veil was fastened to a crown of seed pearls and crystals and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

A reception was held, following the ceremony, at the Riverton firehouse with 100 guests attending.

On their wedding trip Mrs. Martin traveled in a white wool suit with red and white accessories.

They are now residing at 38 Rock Street, Winsted, Conn. The bridegroom is employed with the Square and Marra Construction Company. He attended Andrews High School and the bride attended the Gilbert School.

The Rev. and Mrs. Paul Mayfield and children, Eddie, Tommy, and Mary, of Sylva, visited friends during the weekend.

Ranger Speaker At Garden Club Meeting

ANDREWS - Helton Carmichael, Assistant Ranger of the Tusquitee District of U.S. Forest Service, talked to Valley River Garden Club members and guests on Thursday afternoon at Sunny Corner, home of Mrs. John Whisenhunt. It was the Club's first meeting of the year.

Mr. Carmichael told of the Tree Improvement Program, using a chart to illustrate processes involved in the seedling nursery and explained the long range program for local areas.

Certificate Honors Memory Of Joseph A Rogers

ANDREWS - A certificate signed by President John F. Kennedy shortly before his death last November, was received last week by Mrs. Bertha Rogers of Andrews.

The certificate was awarded to honor the memory of Mrs. Rogers' husband, the late Joseph A. Rogers, for his military service during WWI.

The certificate was signed by President Kennedy on Nov. 14, 1963, just eight days before he was killed in Dallas.

Mr. Rogers spent eleven months overseas during World War I, serving with the famed 30th 'Old Hickory' Division. He died September 8, 1932.

The certificate reads: "The United States of America honors the memory of Joseph A. Rogers. This certificate is awarded by a grateful nation in recognition of devoted and selfless consecration to the service of our country in the Armed Forces of the United States. Signed, John F. Kennedy, President of the U. S., Nov. 14, 1963"

Other members of Mr. Rogers' family include two daughters, Mrs. Norma Best and Mrs. Stella Tatham of Andrews, and three sons, Paul Rogers and Harold Rogers of Raleigh, and Boyd Rogers of Andrews.

Mrs. G. W. Cover, who introduced the speaker, told of her visit to the forests of Germany and Austria, and a comparison discussion followed. In closing Mr. Carmichael related the legend of Standing Indian Mountain.

Mrs. Al Brown, Sr., presided in the absence of the President, Mrs. Rowland Day. Following reports from various committees, plans were announced for several members to plant bulbs on the cemetery grounds on Saturday.

Mrs. Lloyd Bentz, co-hostess, assisted Mrs. Whisenhunt in serving refreshments to members and five guests, Mrs. Louise Whitehouse, Mrs. C. E. Holder, Mrs. S. J. Gernert, Mrs. Lucy Laughler and Mrs. Katherine Brallier.
