E. J. Phillips Honored

ANDREWS - E. J. Phillips, a native of Andrews and the son of Mrs. Jake Phillips, was honored Thursday by the students of Frank L. Ashley High School of Gastonia by dedicating their yearbook, "The Spinner" in a ceremony before the student body.

The dedication stated: "The students of Frank L. Ashley High School have been privileged to know E. J. Phillips as a man for whom we have had the utmost respect and as a counselor and friend. He has always been ready to help us with our problems, encouraging us so that we could find solutions when our problems sometimes seemed to have no answers. He has helped us to understand the value of learning to choose wisely and made us realize that for the future we must be prepared."

An editorial from the Gastonia Gazette this past week stated: "E. J. Phillips is the kind of a principal the students like to sit down and confide in. He is a man of keen intellect and firm principles. He came down from the mountains of North Carolina with his wife, the former Mary Alice Cowan, of Cullowhee, and settled in Gastonia. They and their son, Jake III, have adopted Gastonia as their home and have contributed much to the upbuilding of the community."

"Next year will see the young school executive in a role as principal of Arlington Junior High. There, he will have sole responsibility for the running of the school."

"As he leaves Ashley, he will leave a gap to be filled. The new job at Arlington, however is a challenge - - - one that parents in the area can count on being met with diligence and an intelligent procedure."
