'Rambling In Clay'

By Mrs. Neal R. Kitchens
Now is the time to cut down on fuel bills by putting plastic over the windows. Why we wait until the real winter sets in, I don't know but here in the Sheriff's Office we waited until the blue snow started blowing, Monday.

Things happen here that will always stick with me in the future. One day this summer a man and his little son came in to pay tax. The gentleman owned a truck and some personal items, but no land. The tax was $9.94. When he handed me a $10.00 bill he said, "You know me and this little feller picked enough black berries to pay the tax."

I gave him the receipt and with pride he put it in his pocket and told the little son he could now go to the drugstore and get an ice cream. With that, they left the office and the little one reached up a berry stained hand to clasp his dad's.

A smile spread over his face. I had the feeling that an ice cream was no every day affair with this boy. When I reach the golden years and have time to sit and rock, it's with memories such as this that I shall reflect.

Was glad to hear from Glover Ledford, a former Clay Countain saying he still reads the Scout and Progress. Among those stopping by to give subscriptions for Christmas gifts were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swanson of the Tusquitee section. They sent it to his parents, now living in Lowell.

Carl Moses also called wanting to send his son the paper while he is in service overseas. Mr. Moses says that when you are away from home you read every word of the local paper even the advertising, for you are so anxious to know about things back here.

Miss Lillith Lidseen encouraged me recently when she said she enjoyed "Rambling In Clay." For those who find it hard to give an appropriate Christmas gift, you might try sending the local paper.

In Memoriam

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR FATHER, EUGENE ASHE, WHO PASSED AWAY DECEMBER 1, 1963.

Since you've gone first and we remain, To walk the road alone, We'll live in memories garden, Daddy, With happy days we've known.

In spring we'll wait for roses red, When faded, the lilacs blue. In early fall when brown leaves fall, We'll catch a glimpse of you.

Since you've gone first, and we remain, For battles to be fought, Each thing you've touched along the way, Will be a hallowed spot.

We'll hear your voice, we'll see your smile, Tho' blindly we may grope, The memory of your helping hand, Will buy us on with hope.

Since you've gone first and we remain, One thing we'll have you do: Walk slowly down that long, long path, For soon we'll follow you.

We want to know each step you take, So we may take the same, For some day down that lonely road, You'll hear us call your name.

Your children, Gary, Elaine, and Angela Ashe.
