

LT. KENT L. LAUGHTER of Andrews continues to reap a harvest of athletic honors at Camp Lejeune Marine Base, near Jacksonville, N. C. The latest trophy in Lt. Laughter's career was presented to him as a member of the Base Championship football team. The Base newspaper, the Globe, described the championship game as a victory due to "The defense, masterminded by K. L. Laughter, which completely bottled up the opposition's attack." Lt. Laughter is pictured above, front row, second from left, along with other members of the championship team. The Andrews Marine officers has won other trophies in base tennis and softball competition. He is the son of Mrs. Lucy Laughter of Andrews.

Church News

ANDREWS-The two Circles of WSCS of First Methodist Church and Wesleyan Service Guild met jointly at the Fellowship Hall on Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m.

Decorations were in keeping with the Christmas season. Mrs. R. A. Dewar displayed the Advent wreath and gave symbols of Advent.

A special Christmas program, under the directions of Mrs. F. E. Blalock, was presented. Mrs. Lois June Crawford portrayed Mary with baby Jesus in a nativity scene.

Mrs. Opal Ledford gave a poem "Christmas in The Hills", followed by scripture taken from Luke II by Mrs. Alice Hogsd. The meaning of Christmas was given by Mrs. Blalock, the Promise of Christmas by Mrs. Emogene Ledford, and the story of the birth of Christ by Mrs. Faith Key.

"O Holy Night" was sung by Mrs. Lillian Freely, the story of Christmas by Mrs. Rosalind Hawk, life of Jesus by Mrs. Mary Carter and the crucifixion of Christ by Mrs. Sue Morrow.

"Joy to the World" was sung by the group, with prayer by Mrs. Alice Hogsd.

Mrs. Faith Key gave a reading, "Annie and Willie's Prayer", which concluded the program.

The Wesleyan Service Guild served refreshments to the 28 members present and the offering was added to the money tree which was sponsored by the Guild.

ANDREWS - Rev. and Mrs. France Postell announce the marriage of their daughter, Shelby Jean, to Nelson Younce, son of Mrs. Ruby Younce and the late Arthur Younce.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Younce on Saturday evening, Oct. 24, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harold Mason.

The bride's dress was of white brocaded satin with a scoop neckline.

Following a wedding trip to Columbus, Ohio, the couple are making their home in Andrews.

Garden Club Holds Annual Christmas Party

ANDREWS - The annual Valley River Garden Club's Christmas party was held at the home of Mrs. Edwin Bristol on Thursday afternoon at 3 p.m.

Gay decorations of unusual ideas, created by the hostess, were used throughout the house.

Mrs. Roland Day, president, presided during the brief business session. Following the club's collect, read in unison, committee reports were given. Tentative plans for a flower show, to be held in the spring, were discussed.

Each person present participated in the meaning of Christmas.

Mrs. J. Wiley Davis gave a reading, "Lost Mealy", written by Norman Vincent Peale.

Highlighting the party was true story told by Mrs. Lloyd Bentz of the Christmas that meant most to her.

A gift exchange preceded refreshments of a Christmas salad, cookies, cheese, biscuits, olives, brownies, mints, nuts, tea and coffee served by hostesses, Mrs. L. J. Bentz, Mrs. J. Wiley Davis, Mrs. C. S. Freely, Mrs. H. R. Etheridge, and Mrs. William Hite.

Twenty attended, including guests, Mrs. Lucy Laughter and Mrs. Pinckney Orr, who was welcomed as a new member.
